CHIEF REJECTS REQUEST FOR RESIGNATION

Seeburger, Told 'Powers That Be' Want Him To Quit, Says He Ignores Demand.

SERVED FOR 31 YEARS

Declares Request 'Came Like Bolt From the Blue' Plans No Action.

Fire Chief Charles J. Seeburger today refused a verbal request from the city administration that he resign as head of Mansfield's fire department.

Seeburger said that he had made the refusal after being summoned to the office of Service-Safety Director C. M. Crafton. Seeburger said Crafton told him that "the powers that be" demanded his retirement.

"The request came like a bolt from the blue," said Seeburger. "Since I have been chief, the fire losses in this city have been lower than ever before, even though we have been handicapped with bad equipment."

Crafton said that "the administration" had asked Seeburger's resignation "for the good of the fire department." He pointed out that Seeburger had served for 31 years and had passed the pension retirement age nine years ago.

Crafton would not comment when asked if Mayor W. J. Locke had ordered him to request Seeburger to retire.

Associates said he spent the municipal building at 10:30 a. m., and could not be contacted.

Seeburger, who is 63, joined the fire department in 1910. He has been chief of the city's fire-fighting organization for nine years.

The fire chief said that he would ignore the demand until a written request is handed him and that even then he would "think a long time" before giving his decision.

The service director said that

Newsboys to Take First Orders for Stamps Tomorrow

Mansfield News-Journal carriers, more than 200 of them, will set out tomorrow to contact their subscribers for regular weekly orders for 10-cent defense savings stamps as their part in helping win the war for democracy.

In acting as Official U. S. Defense Agents, their designation on badges, which each boy will wear, the carriers become the largest defense stamp sales organization in Mansfield. They receive no pay but for the first 187 stamps sold each carrier will receive a bronze honor shield to which will be added other honor awards as the campaign progresses.

As the carriers make their collections Friday and Saturday they will ask their customers to fill out the blank for defense savings stamps that appears in today's and Friday's edition of The News-Journal. This blank indicates the number of 10-cent defense savings

CAN SUPPLY BELTS

AKRON—(AP)—The B. F. Goodrich company said today it could supply replacement V-belts for washing machines, oil burners, automobiles and appliances from reclaimed rubber if the OPM approved.

Highest Prices For Livestock—

The wise farmer has learned from past experiences that he can get higher prices for his livestock when he advertises in The News-Journal Want Ads. He knows that farmers in Richland county and surrounding territory read the "Livestock for Sale" ads in The News-Journal every day just as he does, and he can tell you that results come fast. To place a profitable livestock ad in The News-Journal just dial 4251-6, ask for Miss Lane or Miss Stone, or come to The News-Journal office.

Senate Defense Committee Charges Plane Program Lags In Quality, Quantity; Declares OPM Has Failed

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON — Charging the OPM with failure, the senate defense committee today declared that the U. S. airplane program is lagging in both quality and quantity, assailed waste and extravagance in some phases of the war program, and called for drastic remedies.

With remarkable frankness the committee said, in a report after extensive investigations, that some American planes are inferior to foreign makes, and that obsolete planes have been sent into action.

The committee declared that "only about 25 per cent of our present production is of combat ships considered to be equal to or superior to the best types produced abroad."

Unless methods are changed, the committee said, more than half the production of American pursuit, or fighting, planes in 1942 will be a model which no longer rates "as better than a good pursuit trainer because of its limitations in speed, ceiling and fire power."

The committee, however, declared that great progress has been made in building bombers, adding that some American bombing planes are the best in the world.

The report said that at the outbreak of

DOUBLES GROUND AND AIR FORCE IN EXPANSION

32 Motorized Divisions To Be Formed; Increase In Camps Planned.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Secretary Stimson announced today the army had started expanding to approximately 3,600,000 officers and men, more than doubling its present strength in ground and air forces.

Stimson said the increase, authorized by President Roosevelt, would be made this year, with the first three new divisions to be organized by March 15.

Looking to further increases of undisclosed size next year, camp facilities are to be expanded in the meanwhile.

The expansion, announced at a press conference, calls for:

More than double the number of air combat units.

Creation of 32 motorized or triangular divisions, in addition to the 27 conventional ground troop divisions now in service, and doubling the number of armored units.

A proportionate increase in anti-aircraft, engineer, and similar special units.

Formation of 50 or more military police battalions to replace troops now guarding critical facilities in continental United States.

A large increase in the number of men in training centers to provide replacement for all organized units and the personnel for "the additional units to be created in the spring of 1943."

As a part of the vast expansion, Stimson announced at the same time, 75,000 officers will be commissioned in special offi-

GIVEN CODE

Publications Get Rulings From U. S. Censor.

WASHINGTON —(AP)— American newspapers, magazines and similar organs of information today had an official outline from the office of censorship of publication "practices which the government feels are desirable for the effective prosecution of the war."

The code, issued by Byron Price, director of censorship, calls for withholding publication of "certain classes of information which might be of aid to the enemy."

In general, the ban falls on the publication of ship, plane and troop movements; specification and locations of fortifications, bomb shelters and camouflaged objects; specific information concerning production of war material; general weather information, and photographs or maps disclosing military information of any kind.

MUST REGISTER

Male Netherlanders Made Liable For Military Service.

LONDON —(INS)— The Netherlanders government-in-exile today ordered immediate registration for military service of all male Netherlanders in the United Kingdom between the ages of 18 and 20 and 38 and 41.

They are required to report as soon as possible to Netherlands consular officials in their districts.

FROZEN BODY FOUND

LISBON—(AP)—The frozen body of Homer Beard, 68-year-old Leetonia farmer, was found yesterday beside the Erie railroad tracks. Coroner Arnold Devon, who said the skull was fractured, gave a verdict of accidental death.

Bell Appointed Police Chief, Replacing Bates

Captain to Serve While FBI Has Regular Chief

Mansfield was given a new police chief today who will serve for the duration of the war.

Police Capt. Thomas M. Bell, member of the police force for the past 32 years, was appointed to succeed Police Chief Meade K. Bates, who leaves Sunday for Washington, D. C., to join the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Bates informed city officials yesterday that he had been called for government service and asked that a successor be appointed as soon as possible so that he could help the new chief with some of the more important phases of the post.

Nelson Outlines Drastic War Production Program

Declares 'Sensible' Peacetime Production Methods Will Be Junked In Few Weeks, New Ones Used.

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON—Donald M. Nelson promised today that so many old ideas were going to be junked in the next few weeks and so many new ones adopted to get America's production system into high gear that it would "make your hair curl."

Ordinary, peacetime, even "sensible" methods are going to be tossed overboard for a system that probably will bring charges of insanity from the old-timers, the new boss of production and supply said in a speech read for him last night in Vincennes, Ind.

"We need to be cracked enough, if you please, to try to do things that sensible men would not try to do under ordinary circumstances," Nelson said.

These statements were made as Nelson redoubled his efforts to revamp lagging army, navy and OPM procurement and production policies. Under the new war production board he will head, he has been given complete authority to recommend any steps he deems necessary to harness industry to the huge armament production task ahead of it.

There can be no more halfway measures, no more maybes, buts, and ifs in the war against Hitlerism, he said, because:

"Failure in this job, let me remind you again, is equivalent to national death."

Every worker must be utilized for war production or civilian ne-

GETS 6 MONTHS

One-to-Twenty Year Sentence Reduced For Akron Patrolman.

AKRON —(INS)— A one-to-20-year sentence passed on Jacob Yingling, 47, city patrolman found guilty in the blackjack death of Walter Lamb, jr., 22, today was lightened to six months in Summit county jail by Common Pleas Judge Stephan C. Colopy.

Lamb died as a result of a beating he received while allegedly resisting officers at city jail last spring.

CUT DELIVERIES

Warren Stores Limit Service To One-a-Day Basis.

WARREN — (AP) — Warren stores hereafter will limit their deliveries to once a day, and the Retail Merchants' association is asking customers to accept reclaimed boxes and wrapping paper.

STABS FATHER

Youth, 19, Attacks Parent To Save Mother From Beating.

CHICAGO—(INS)—A 19-year-old youth, known as a "good son all his life," stabbed his father to death today in defense of his mother whom the father had dragged from bed and beaten.

The victim was Russell Artist, 39, a railroad switchman. The son, Thomas, a gasoline station attendant, was held in jail.

The mother, Josephine, 35, and four other children, wept as they told police how the father died, but all defended young Thomas. They said the father came home intoxicated early today and immediately began a quarrel with his wife, because, he said, the house was "too hot."

OIL DESTROYED

Wilmington, Del., Blaze Results In Quarter-Million Dollar Loss.

WILMINGTON, Del.—(INS)—A quarter of a million dollars worth of grease and oil vital to the national defense program were destroyed, it was estimated today, in the fire which swept over the Texas company's 1100-foot terminal pier at Claymont, causing injuries to 14 persons. The fire was believed to have started from a spark of a welder's torch.

RED CROSS TOPS $40,000 FIGURE

Westinghouse Comes In With $3,000; Chapter Ready To End Campaign.

Hitting the $40,000 mark today with receipt of a $3,000 gift from Westinghouse as an industry, the war emergency fund raised by Richland county chapter of the Red Cross stood over-subscribed to the amount of $10,162.75.

The Westinghouse gift approximated that raised by employes in keeping with a promise by the company to match dollar for dollar all contributions made by employes up to $3,000. The employes' fund went 10 cents over that mark.

Yesterday's collections, totalling $3,484.70, raised the war fund to $40,162.75 and this will be supplemented with county collections, receipts from the benefit dance to be staged Saturday night by the Italian-American Citizens' committee, and other individual contributions.

With the $30,000 quota raised and the appeal from national headquarters for an over-subscription of $10,000 met, the county chapter prepared to close its war emergency fund headquarters in the Farmers bank building Saturday.

Campaign solicitors were urged by L. B. Hamilton, co-chairman of the fund raising committee, to give an accounting no later than Saturday and a mop-up of county collections went into effect today.

MAILS CHECKS

Utility Company Ready to Refund $1,400,000 to Consumers.

COLUMBUS —(U.P.)— The Ohio Fuel Gas company will begin Friday to mail checks totaling $1,400,000 to 70,000 Columbus consumers representing refunds due for the years 1925 to 1927.

CAMPS KEEP ROUTINE

COLUMBUS —(AP)—Despite an unexpected drop in attendance, programs will not be curtailed at Methodist summer camps this year, directors decided at the church's institute council here.

MAKES ATTACK ON SENATORIAL REDISTRICTING

Attorney General Says Plan Affecting Richland Not Constitutional.

Re-apportionment of Ohio's senatorial districts under which Richland county was shifted from a normally Republican district to a Democratic district was attacked today in the Ohio Supreme court by Atty. Gen. Thomas J. Herbert, a Republican.

The re-apportionment plan was set up last year by State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson and Secretary of State John E. Sweeney, both Democrats. The board's report, recommending the changes, was signed by Gov. John W. Bricker, the third member, who said he did not approve the changes. He said he signed it because he was in the minority on the committee and did not care to hold up the action.

Contending that the changes were unconstitutional, the attorney general asked the supreme court to restore the districts to an alignment which had existed for 10 years before the changes were made last spring.

The re-districting shifted Richland county from the 27-th-29th district to the 29th-31st district. In the old district with Richland county were Ashland, Medina, and Lorain counties. Usually they turned in a Republican majority and now have two Republican senators.

With Richland and Ashland counties now in a district with Crawford, Senaca, and Wyandot counties, Richland would lose both its present senators, P. H. Rogers

REVEAL STAND

Friends Say Willkie Won't Accept 'Umpire' Job.

NEW YORK—(INS)—Wendell L. Willkie will not accept appointment as "labor umpire" in President Roosevelt's strike administration set-up, persons close to him disclosed today.

The 1940 Republican presidential nominee has decided such a position would be a "waste of time" for him, friends said. He still is available, however, to any presidential call in which he can be of genuine worth to the prosecution of the war, they emphasized.

It was revealed in Washington that Willkie's name was being considered.

ATTACK PEACE

Finnish Papers See Attempt To Undermine Nation's Morale.

HELSINKI—(AP)—Finnish newspapers, encouraged by the high command's reports of successes against the Russian army, attacked the foreign "peace offensive" today, charging it with attempting to undermine Finnish morale and to eliminate Finland as a factor in the war.

The latest high command communique declared that small, scattered Red army units had been annihilated and a number of local attacks beaten off north of Lake Onega.

LINDY GETS JOB

Assigned To Technical Commercial Project by War Department.

WASHINGTON—(U.P.)—Charles A. Lindbergh has been assigned to a "technical commercial project" in which the war department is interested and will serve in a civilian capacity, Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson announced today.

It's Beginning to Look Like Mayor's Closing Door to N-J

If today's performance is any criterion, News-Journal reporters are going to be barred from Mayor W. J. Locke's office.

They may be able to talk to him in the corridors of the city building—as it happened today—but they can't get into the sanctum sanctorum where they can sit in chairs and converse at ease.

At that, they may be more fortunate than other citizens who sit in an outer office for hours while the mayor comes and goes by means of his "private" door after he talks with the "selected."

Ruffled by the unfavorable publicity given to comment by Democratic leaders on his efforts to organize the city's administrative or legislative activities, the mayor has refused to allow private interviews.

He will unbend enough, however, to carry on a running conversation in the corridors of the municipal building, all the time edging away toward his office door. He terminated today's "pillar to post" interview by slamming the office door in the middle of a question.

Asked for a private interview while approaching his office door, Mayor Locke hunched his shoulders, and said: "I would rather talk here." He replied to the four questions put to him concerning new appointments and his reactions on criticism of his actions in curt monosyllables.

The mayor dismissed Democratic Councilman Fred Miller's charges that he had "engineered" the overthrow of the Democratic council appointments to "go on a spending spree to pay off political debts," by saying: "I have nothing to say."

U. S. Navy Units On Prowl After Ship Goes Down

Torpedo Hits Vessel Near Long Island; Singapore Defenders Beat Off Air Attack; Dutch Bomb Jap Warships Preparing Invasion Attempt.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON—(UP)—The navy announced today that an American submarine in the Far East sank a 17,000-ton Japanese liner of the Yawata class.

(By United Press)

The pattern of world-wide warfare extended to new fronts—including the Atlantic seaboard—today, but the Allies appeared to be fighting more strongly in the main battleground in the Far East.

The torpedoing of the 9,577-ton freighter Norness only 60 miles off Long Island and the vigorous United States naval search in which one or more enemy submarines were being dealt with on the Atlantic coast emphasized the efforts of the Axis to strike on as many fronts as possible to spread Allied defense strength.

But there was no indication that the Allied high commands would permit their attention to be diverted from the main theaters of war, and in London the British undersecretary of war, Lord Croft, told critics that "if we attempted to have substantial armed forces everywhere we should be able to resist the enemy nowhere."

As a result of this Allied policy of concentrating limited fighting strength on the most vital fronts, today's war dispatches showed:

MALAYA—Reinforced British aerial defenses beat off a prolonged Japanese aerial attack which failed to penetrate to Singapore while land forces battled to throw back the enemy from Malacca and northern Johore, about 100 miles from Singapore.

BATAVIA—Dutch planes and land forces continued to put up stiff resistance against enemy warships and aerial attacks believed to be preparing for a new invasion attempt at Balik Papan, on the east coast of Borneo about 320 miles south of Japanese-held Tarakan island.

BURMA—A British spokesman said that "naturally" an offensive into Japanese-held Thailand was being considered as a result of arrival of reinforcements from India. Chinese troops also have been sent into Burma. More Allied forces are en route, and at Chungking the press was urging an immediate attack on Thailand. Aerial fighting continued, with the British bombing Japan's air base at Mehod in Thailand.

SOON: Observers Predict Jap Luzon Attack Within 48 Hours

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Japan renewed aerial attacks on Manila bay fortifications today in a resumption of its all out offensive to attempt to crush American forces in the Philippines.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON—Drawing a conclusion from recent successes of the Philippine defenders, Washington military observers decided that Japan will strike with full force against Gen. Douglas MacArthur's island army within the next 48 hours.

First Nipponese attacks, experts believed, set the stage for the anticipated climactic conflict.

The invaders' first efforts to smash the American-Filipino troops were repulsed, and, according to experts, the Japs paid a prohibitive toll in lives and equipment. Japan, however, probably emerged from those defeats fully prepared for what may prove the decisive thrust in the fight, tacticians said.

Although crushed in a curtain of shot and shell, the preliminary onslaughts showed the approximate strength of MacArthur's positions in North Batan, observers asserted.

With this knowledge in hand, the Nipponese high command, according to qualified military spokesmen, may be expected to select one or two alternatives—a mass assault on the previously prepared defense positions in Batan in concert with prolonged bombing of Manila Bay fortifications, or else a temporary suspension would launch another attack as soon as their forces were maneuvered into position.

The defense units, fighting from the wooded hillsides of Batan, hurled back two "determined attacks" of Nipponese reconnais-

DECISIVE: Reds, Nazis Clash In Giant Battle Near Mozhaisk

(By Associated Press)

Russian shock troops were reported smashing in a direct frontal assault today against 100,000 Germans massed at Mozhaisk, 57 miles west of Moscow, in what appeared to be one of the greatest and perhaps most decisive battles of the war.

Mozhaisk is the keystone of the dwindling German defense corridor on the Napoleonic road from Moscow to Smolensk.

The British radio said that a savage battle was raging at the gates of Mozhaisk and that "one key position is said to have changed hands many times."

Other Red army forces, slowly closing a giant trap around Mozhaisk, were reported officially to have recaptured the town of Medyn, 35 miles to the southwest. This meant that the Germans now had only a 70-mile-wide escape route from Mozhaisk, with Soviet troops pressing down from Volokalamsk in the north and Medyn in the south.

Volokolamsk is 35 miles north of Mozhaisk.

A bulletin from Adolf Hitler's high command, tersely noting "defensive battles" on the Moscow and Leningrad fronts, acknowledged that the Russians were making a new drive along the Sea of Azov toward Taganrog, 40 miles west of Rostov-on-Don.

The offensive was termed "unsuccessful."

The Berlin radio admitted that Russian reinforcements for the new battle of the Crimea

AUTHOR SPEAKS AT BOOK FAIR FRIDAY NIGHT

Will Discuss Heritage and Future In Address at Public Library.

Author of "The American Primer," which elicited county-wide praise from the critics when it was published last spring, Miss Dorsha Hayes will speak at the Mansfield Public Library Friday night on the subject, "Can Our Heritage Shape Things to Come?"

Miss Hayes is presented by the Memorial Library Board as the latter's contribution to the library Book Fair now open to the public in the Larwill room. She will speak in the children's department at 8 p. m. and the public is invited. No admission fee will be asked.

Daughter of Revolutionary and pioneer stock the author was inspired to write "The American Primer" out of a full experience that stemmed from hardships as well as prosperity.

She has been a teacher, a pioneer in the art of the dance, a number on WPA rolls and finally an author and lecturer. As one critic expressed it, "The American Primer," is a confession of faith by one who has taken the time and patience to examine our democracy."

Scheduled to arrive Friday at noon on the Pennsylvania railroad from New York, Miss Hayes will be met by Mrs. Louis J. Ott, chairman of the Memorial board. She will be introduced at the evening program by Miss Lois MacKellar, librarian.

30 VOLUNTEERS

DeMolays Take Course In Emergency Work.

Thirty members of Baku chapter, Order of DeMolay, have volunteered their services for civilian defense work and are taking a 10-week Red Cross first aid course which will outfit them to do special duty during any emergency.

The members, ranging from 15 to 19 years in age, held their second training season yesterday from 7 to 9 p. m., in the municipal courtroom in the city hall under the direction of Patrolman Howard Schuck.

Bernard Hardy, Red Cross instructor, is handling the training of the youths. Schuck, past monarch of Baku Grotto, said that the chapter members would enlist in the civilian defense program as a unit immediately following the completion of the first aid courses.

PHOTOGS OPEN 6-MONTH STUDY

At the first meeting of a camera study course Tuesday night conducted by the Mansfield Photographic society in the offices of the Vercoe company on the fourth floor of the Farmers' Bank building 49 camera enthusiasts signed for a six months study and heard M. K. Leggett, advertising man, give his first lecture.

Leggett explained the mechanism of a camera shutter telling how light waves reacted on film plates. He also discussed the use of a light meter in taking photographs and told what light waves are composed of.

The course will be held the second Tuesday of each month for the six months' period and will present outside speakers for single lectures.

NAVY HUNTING NAZI SUBMARINE OFF EAST COAST

Search Follows Sinking of Freighter; Dutch Keep Up Far East Resistance.

CHINA—Chinese troops reported the capture of Lupao, north of the important Japanese communications center of Canton, asserting that 600 enemy soldiers were killed and that the Canton-Hongkong railroad was cut in two places.

PHILIPPINES—There was no indication that the Japanese had made progress against American defenders of Batan province, but one Tokyo broadcast claimed that troops had landed on Grande island, in Subic bay near the U. S. naval base of Olongapo.

Of the crew of 40, on the torpedoed Norness, her master and eight others were taken to New Bedford, Mass., in the fishing boat Malvina and then to the naval base here by naval authorities. Thirty others, including six officers, were picked up from their lifeboats by naval vessels and brought here. No American was in the crew which was Scandinavian, chiefly Norwegian. One man was missing.

One of the rescued men had been seriously injured. Others were suffering from shock and exposure. All were put in the naval hospital here. The navy did not release their names or any detail of their experience.

But from what was already known, it was apparent that they had spent from six to 12 hours in lifeboats. Patrol planes sighted their ship, its deck awash, yesterday morning, life boats loaded with men hovering around Naval vessels were rushed to the rescue.

It was the second attack within a few days off the coast of the North American continent. A 10,000-ton merchant ship was torpedoed previously 160 miles off Nova Scotia with a loss of 91 lives.

Meanwhile, in the Far East, Japanese claims in regard to their broad, enveloping offensive against the East Indies and Singapore were less definite than usual, although Tokyo radio said that four Allied ships totalling 37,000 tons and two submarines had been sunk. Three other ships were reported captured in East Indies waters.

The Japanese also said that their drive down the Malaya peninsula had entered Johore state, the last area barring their way to Singapore and the most strongly defended. No positions were given, however.

Another Japanese report said that some 30,000 British troops on the Malaya defense line had been encircled, but this was in contrast to recent reports from Singapore that the British retirement had been made in good order and that everything was destroyed in the path of the enemy.

In North Africa, the Axis forces under Gen. Erwin Rommel made a surprise stand in the Mersa Brega area, 110 miles south of Benghazi and 30 miles east of El Agheila, where the main battle had been expected.

Axis bombardment of British forces in Libya has been increased sharply in the last few days.

Warn FDR Against Underestimating Japs

NEW YORK—(INS)—Angered by Secretary of the Navy Knox's assertion that Hitler must first be defeated and that full-scale action by the U. S. fleet in the Pacific should not be expected in the near future, 16 leading Chinese organizations in New York have warned President Roosevelt against underestimating the Japanese.

"Nothing will so destroy the spirit of unity of America and China as to say on America's part that our great enemy is not Japan, but Hitler," said a telegram sent by the group to Mr. Roosevelt, it was disclosed today.

The telegram, which stated that there is a "spirit of deep dissatisfaction growing in China, Australia, the Dutch East Indies and London itself, added:

"We are committing a colossal blunder if we continue to underestimate Japan by insisting that she is merely Hitler's tool . . . Japan had her own scheme of driving white men from Asia long before Hitler came to power.

Japs Invoke Manila Reprisal Tactics

WASHINGTON —(U.P.)— A hint of Japanese difficulties in their occupation of Manila was seen today in a report that they invoked Nazi Germany's drastic reprisal tactics and will hold 10 hostages for every person that attacks a Japanese and escapes.

The harsh new Japanese decree was reported by Gen. Douglas MacArthur who noted that it contrasted sharply with the glittering promises of friendship for the Filipinos distributed by the Japanese in the opening phase of their campaign.

There was no indication whether the measures were invoked to stamp out sniping and attacks on Japanese troops by the Manila citizenry or as a precaution against such outbreaks in the future.

The Japanese warning said 10 "influential persons" would be held as hostages in event that perpetrators or terroristic acts — who will be shot if found—are not apprehended.

Chinese Pursue 10,000 Japanese

CHUNGKING — (INS) — Ten thousand Japanese survivors of the Changsha debacle were pursued by Chinese troops north of the Milo river today as Chinese newspapers reopened their demands for a full-scale Chinese offensive against Thailand and Indo-China.

While a military spokesman warned that immediate attacks against the Japanese-held cities of Hankow and Canton should not be anticipated, he emphasized that Chungking forces still were engaged in mopping up the Japanese Changsha forces. Hundreds of them, he said, froze to death or drowned in the Milo river in their headlong flight.

The river, he said, is filled with corpses, while on its shores are the remains of funeral pyres hastily built to dispose of the dead.

23 ESCAPE IN PRISON BREAK

Nine Recaptured by Texas Police; Dormitory Bars Sawed.

AUSTIN, Tex—(INS)—State police reported today that seven more of the 23 convicts who escaped from the Eastham prison farm last night had been recaptured. Two were captured soon after the break occurred.

The break occurred at dusk last night when the men sawed through the bars of a dormitory housing 250 men.

Twenty-three got out but two of them, Ed Morris, 39, of Fort Worth, serving a 12-year sentence for burglary, and C. R. Stout, 27, of Wichita Falls, doing a life term as an habitual criminal, were captured quickly. One of them was reported shot in the arm by guards.

cer candidate schools this year and requirements for air force pilots, bombardiers and navigators had been lowered from 20 to 18 years. Married men now also may train as fliers, and intelligence tests have been substituted for educational requirements.

Stimson said the army increase called for a vast expansion also of housing and training facilities which, he added, has already started.

The army now is building nine new camps to accommodate 30,000 men each, he said. All training centers are being expanded to accommodate an additional 200,000. In addition, five temporary tent camps are being set up.

SHUTS DOORS

Holmes County Savings Firm Placed In Receivership.

MILLERSBURG — Charles S. Merion, state superintendent of banks, today placed the Holmes county Savings and Loan company here in receivership at the request of its directors.

Company assets were listed at $262,319. Shareholders accounts total approximately $243,000. The company was incorporated in 1909.

Shareholders and liquidating dividends will be paid as rapidly as funds can be accumulated for that purpose, Merion said. The office will remain open for the collection of rentals and interest and mortgage payments, but deposits no longer will be accepted.

Red Shock Troops Clash With 100,000 Nazis In War's Greatest Fight.

were landing at Feodosiya, on the Kerch peninsula, and said German fliers had bombed large Soviet shipping concentrations, disembarking troops and war materials of all kinds. The Nazi high command said three Russian ships were damaged by bomb hits.

In the north, on the Leningrad front, German assault troops were reported to have destroyed 20 Soviet pillboxes and their gun crews in driving a 600-foot-wide breach through Russian lines. This implied that a Nazi counter-offensive had been launched in the Leningrad area.

By contrast, the British radio reported:

"The Russians have now cleared almost the whole of the eastern bank of the River Volkhov, southeast of Leningrad, and captured a village on the west bank about 65 miles from the city."

Berlin newspapers told again of fighting in specific zones—Mozhaisk, Kaluga, Orel, Kursk, Kharkov, Taganrog—after six weeks of dealing in generalities about the reverses set off by the retreat from Rostov.

Some European observers interpreted this to mean that Adolf Hitler's eastern armies had reached a winter line—presumably based upon those cities—which they intended to hold at all costs.

However, Kaluga, 110 miles southwest of Moscow is already in Russian hands, Mozhaisk, 57 miles west of the capital is menaced at the front and flanks, and some of the others evidently are almost within range of Soviet artillery.

British warplanes bombed the north coast of Germany overnight, Berlin officials announced, damaging houses and causing civilian casualties. Three invading planes were declared shot down.

German desert fighters were reported in London to be employing two-man tanks in the El Agheila phase of the battle of Libya, some of them being midget machines which Italians had tried and discarded after the 1941 Libyan campaign.

Imperial and Allied infantry moved forward to new positions against Axis holdout forces in the Halfaya border region of Egypt, facing Libya, under cover of a destructive aerial and artillery bombardment, British Middle East headquarters at Cairo announced.

Reduction of the German and Italian border positions, a thorn in the flank of the British offensive now more than 300 miles inside Libya, would release sizable British imperial and Allied forces for the drive westward toward El Agheila and Tripoli.

Renew Bombings Of German Ports

LONDON —(INS)— New British bombing attacks on Hamburg, Bremen and other German ports as well as the Nazi-occupied Dutch port of Rotterdam were announced by the British air ministry today.

A communique said RAF bombers also attacked airdromes in Holland during the night. Large fires were said to have been started in the docks and shipyards at Hamburg. Five British planes were listed as missing.

Estimates Axis Loss At 1,050,000 Men

LONDON —(INS)— Axis forces have suffered an estimated total of 1,050,000 casualties in all campaigns other than in Russia, Brig.-Gen. Lord Croft, under secretary for war, said in a speech today.

Lord Croft said the Italians and Germans had lost 600,000 in killed and wounded in European campaigns prior to the attack on Russia and an additional 450,000 in campaigns in Africa, including fronts in Libya, Egypt and Ethiopia.

Hints Indicate New Nazi Thrust

ALGIERS — (UP) — Axis hints of an imminent "surprise move" in the western or central Mediterranean were believed today to foreshadow a new German southward thrust elsewhere—possibly through Turkey.

Some Algerian military experts, confident that the eastern Mediterranean will be the next war theater, view with skepticism the sunburst of of suggestions that Malta and Gibraltar are the logical objectives of an impending Axis assault.

"The big question mark in the Mediterranean is still at the Turkish end rather than at Gibraltar," Rene Richard, military expert of the newspaper Echo D'Alger, wrote.

cessities; every machine must be one part of the whole pattern in the war effort.

Nelson's formula, where mines are already working at capacity, is:

"Kick all of the old standards out of the window and go ahead somehow, anyhow, and increase the production of those mines by 33 per cent."

Management may have to make concessions to labor, and labor to management, and both to the general welfare, but:

"None of that matters. In such a situation the only thing that could conceivably stop us would be the fact that it was not physically possible to get more ore out of the ground than was already being mined.

"No other consideration is of value."

sance, the war department asserted. The drives were made "in force," according to the department, and the invaders suffered "heavy losses." MacArthur's casualties were "comparatively small."

In all, the mikado's army has slashed at the Batan line at least four times, and each time was repulsed.

None of the previous attacks, however, will compare with the full power of the widescale offensive that experts believed is in the offing.

While the nation's attention was focused sharply on home shores with the disclosure that a tanker had been torpedoed only 100 miles from New York harbor, America moved to expand its war front in the Far East.

The war department said three U. S. bombers, cooperating with forces of the Netherland Indies, bombed a Japanese naval force off Borneo. This was the first official report of American operations in the Indies. The planes sank at least two Japanese lighters, possibly loaded with troops.

stamps that the customer will purchase from the carrier each week.

Next week when the carriers make their regular collection rounds they will fill the stamp orders and present purchasers with a stamp album in which they may paste the 187 stamps required to fill each book.

After filling the book and adding a nickel to it the holder can exchange the album at the postoffice for a defense savings bond, having a value of $18.75, and which will be worth $25 in 10 years.

The defense savings stamp plan that will be conducted by the News-Journal carriers is also explained in an advertisement in today's edition and the coupon to be filled out by each customer appears in the advertisement. Carriers will also be supplied with additional coupons. No money will be collected in advance.

Carrier-defense agents have each signed a treasury department pledge and at the close of the campaign each boy will receive a merit award on parchment paper stating the number of defense stamps he has sold as a volunteer official of the U. S. Defense Agency.

OHIO PROTESTS CHICAGO PLEA

Bricker Reports Shortage of Water Needed in Defense Work.

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Citing a shortage of water for Ohio's vital war industry areas, Gov. John W. Bricker and Attorney General Thomas J. Herbert today had asked the federal government to turn down a Chicago plea for diversion of more Great Lakes water.

Chicago now takes 1,500 cubic feet of Lake Michigan water per second, forces it up the Chicago river, through a drainage canal and down the Illinois river to the Mississippi river. It has asked for 10,000 cubic feet a second to handle its sewage more rapidly.

Captain To Take Place of Bates During Service With FBI.

the force, three during the daylight hours and ten at night.

Bell was made a police lieutenant in August, 1918, and three months later became a police captain. He fought in the Spanish-American war and is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Spanish War Veterans.

Bates leaves the department only for the duration of the war. Last month, city council granted him a leave of absence for FBI service. He joined the department 19 years ago and has served as police chief since January, 1937.

Bates is a graduate of the FBI's National Police academy, having attended summer sessions there for the past four years. He is being called to Washington along with hundreds of other academy graduates to help the FBI increase wartime vigilance.

Bell will take charge of the department upon Bates' departure on Sunday. Before that time, Bates will confer with Bell to make him familiar with the subversive activities investigation and other wartime activities of the department.

Civil service examinations are being held to determine the eligibility of other members of the department to fill the captain's post left vacant by Bell and others which may be vacated in promotions.

Bell is 70 years old and has been eligible for the police retirement pension for ten years. Pension work credit is limited to $100 per month for patrolmen who have served 22 years. Bell is also eligible for an additional $6.25 per month for years worked past the pension retirement age.

Mansfield News-Journal

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

MANSFIELD, OHIO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1942.

Warning to robins inclined to return early: This kind of weather can't be depended on.

A curious state of mind is developing in Europe. Nations no longer think they must give Hitler everything he asks for.

Fear is expressed for the future of golf—as it seems unlikely that anybody would walk several miles in order to walk several miles.

Capacity Production Needed

NEED for speed in adjusting the nation's vast industrial machine to wartime production is being evidenced locally by temporarily curtailed activity of several plants which can be made valuable units in the output of war materials as soon as national plans can be transformed into performance.

Here are well-equipped plants, in readiness to take on any war work that may be apportioned to them, but running at much under capacity because of shortage of raw materials.

It is the expressed intent of President Roosevelt that the nation's industries, large and small, shall quickly become associated with the program of all-out production for war purposes—"twenty-four hours a day and seven days a week."

Shortage of scrap metal is announced as a cause for much of the delay in supplying material for manufacture into war equipment and an intensive effort is now being made all over the country to gather up discarded scrap in city junk yards and on farms.

With Donald Nelson appointed to one-man control of production, and gradual movement toward greater efficiency in matters of priorities, allocations and distribution of essential raw materials, the next few weeks may be expected to show marked improvement in actual production processes.

Heretofore it has been feared that American help might be "too little, too late." It is Nelson's determination that this shall be changed to "too much, too soon"—which means that there must be no idle factories nor idle people.

Many Calls for Contributions

WITH one fund-raising campaign merging into another, and sometimes overlapping, it may soon be necessary for persons with moderate and low incomes to budget contributions in a way that will leave a balance to meet living costs, pay taxes and permit purchase of defense stamps and bonds.

A recent partial list of organizations seeking contributions for various worthy causes, all with approval of the state department and under responsible sponsorship, extended to more than one hundred fund-raising groups devoted to some phase of war relief or service.

Each of these will attract the interest and support of many people but it is obviously impossible for any one person to contribute to all of them, nor can any community spread its organization activities in so many directions.

The people of Mansfield have shown a willingness to contribute liberally to many worthy causes, with notable response to the recent special call of the Red Cross and widespread purchase of defense bonds and stamps. Now there is a request for contributions to the President's Birthday Ball fund, which will be used to continue work in behalf of victims of infantile paralysis, and which merits the support of everyone.

Soon Mansfielders will be asked to make their annual contributions to the Community Fund, for the maintenance of local welfare, humanitarian and character-building agencies for which the wartime need will be even greater than in previous years.

Income taxes, with the first installment payable March 15, will be higher than ever before, and further advance in living costs are anticipated. A close scanning of fund-raising campaigns is advisable, before presentation on a city-wide scale, or sanctioned for individual or group solicitation, as it is quite apparent that public attention cannot be effectively directed to several hundred nationally approved relief and service organizations, however worthy they may be.

When Silence Is Golden

A STATEMENT recently made by H. D. Collier, president of the Standard Oil company of California, is worthy of widest possible attention.

Mr. Collier said: "One of the most important ways of contributing to success, is to protect the army and navy by refraining from discussing their activities."

He pointed out that where the company employes (this applies with equal force to the employes of any company) are in contact with our armed forces, they should keep all information acquired, to themselves. "Don't even tell your friends. A casual comment about the movement of ships, naval or merchant, or about the movement of troops, might be of great value to the enemy and lead to a disaster. Military authorities are pleading that the public refrain from gossip and the spreading of rumors.

"We have a most serious duty. Serve in silence. Don't reveal military information."

Each and every citizen can perform a valuable service for our armed forces as well as the people at home, by following this sound advice.

Instruction In Self-Propulsion

ADVICE, humorous or serious, is appearing in some quarters on the subject of walking as a means of getting from one place to another. A newspaper, believing that its readers are "ill-prepared to engage in the art of self-propulsion," tells them how to walk efficiently, getting speed with the least fatigue, and so on. It recommends swinging the hips with the legs, swinging the arms, keeping the mouth closed while breathing deeply through the nose.

This is no merely academic subject. All may be doing more walking from now on.

May Reprocess Old License Plates

NEW JERSEY has an idea, not yet put into practice, which sounds like a sensible solution of the automobile license plate problem.

The motor vehicle commissioner suggests that 1941 plates be turned in when 1942 plates are bought. That's easy enough—every American is used to turning in something when he buys something. Then the old plates will be reprocessed and made ready for use in 1943.

Newspapers may prefer to call it "one hundred billion" instead of 100,000,000,000—to save wear and tear on ciphers.

SKY-WRITING THAT REALLY COUNTS

Young Analyzes Far East Moves

—By JAMES R. YOUNG

Written Expressly for International News Service.

SINGAPORE and Malta are the danger signals flashed today on the Allied war board.

British forces, in their withdrawal, are in far from a healthy position, notwithstanding London assertions of a Reuters news agency report that the retreat is "a magnificent feat." Malta is steeled against recurring reports of a planned Axis assault evidently aimed at re-opening convoy channels to the last Nazi stand in Libya.

YOUNG

Military observers are awaiting the effect of an expected Allied aerial reinforcement in the Malaya Peninsula, certainly due this week. The British Imperial forces, having withdrawn so close to Singapore, are not now favored with natural jungle barrier conditions.

From Indo China, Thailand and Formosa the Japs are operating their best bombers, in the hands of experienced pilots. Their plan, now that they are within 150 miles of the great British naval base, is to crisscross Singapore by going into northeast Borneo which the Dutch admit the Nipponese have occupied, refuel and come back over the seaport. If the Dutch effectively destroyed Borneo's oil storage supplies, the Japs must, from necessity, bring their own fuel but this is contrary to their plan.

FALL of Dutch Tarakan is the first blow inflicted on the Dutch who up to now have been ahead of the Allies in victories, especially at sea. The Japs had already taken British North Borneo and Sarawak.

Holland's Free Dutch forces however had consolation—they were assisted by Australian aviators in scoring three direct hits on Jap ships.

America's Gibraltar of the South Pacific, Corregidor, remains a dilemma for the Japs who appear to have shifted their air attacks to the British and the Dutch. The Japs have found that the superior quality of American artillery fire is shattering the invader with severe losses.

The Japs are accustomed to bunching their men in attacks to simulate mob approach. When their regimental commander finds himself against superior marksmanship, as the Japs have encountered from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's forces in the last two days, the invader is unable to rally himself to overcome a military problem not previously experienced.

AMERICAN losses are described as slight in the fierce engagement with the Japanese who were forced to withdraw artillery units on the Bataan Peninsula after losing 11 batteries.

The end of the sixth week of battle may find promised air reinforcements tackling the Japs in all three sectors with assaults which will force them to bring in more reinforcements, if such are available.

Japanese ship losses are out of proportion to their anticipation. Casualties in men may run as high as 60 to 70 per cent in order to occupy a given area.

Manpower Japan can throw against the Americans, British and Dutch, but repeated losses of artillery or tanks and in war vessels, cannot be replaced except from reserve vessels now afloat in those waters.

Hardest Part of Grief

—By ELSIE ROBINSON

THE HARDEST PART about grief is not enduring it—but giving it up.

You've lost someone. Someone who gave all the sweetness and meaning in life. And your heart is broken. Terrible days! You wake, you sleep, you go about your work. It's all the same. You're in a daze of misery—drugged by sorrow. You're as truly dead as that dear one who has gone. You're sure that life will never come back again.

And you don't want it to come back. You don't want to live with your darling gone. But it does come back. Without your willing it, without your knowing it, without your desire, life comes back. Creeping slowly, rising softly, in a tide, life comes back. You have an appetite again. You can sleep.

You feel a stirring of interest in a new hat, or the latest football score. You haven't forgotten love—your grief is just as great. But life has taken hold of you again. Life is needing you, clamoring for you, demanding that you take your place.

There are the old responsibilities to be taken up again. There is that new duty which you have avoided, which your friends have helped you avoid, during your black hours. They're waiting for you.

Reluctantly you realize this. But you turn your face away. You don't want to take up those responsibilities again. You don't want to come back into life. Why? You say it's because your heart is broken. And you believe that.

You believe it because you want to believe it. Unconsciously grief has become a convenience!

It has become an escape from people and things you do not want to face. It has become an alibi for selfishness, and laziness and cowardice. If you did not have that grief, if you laid it aside bravely, you would have to mingle with the world — you would have to face competition and criticism. But grieving, you can lock yourself away, you can hide your sorrow. And no one will dare condemn you for doing so.

"Poor Sally," they'll say, "she's never been the same since Billy died. It's wonderful, and tragic, to live like that."

And, hearing them, you'll not only feel excused—but you'll feel that you are set apart by your great disaster—that you're not like other people — that you should be pitied and honored because you cannot, will not come back into life.

But of course the truth is—you deserve neither pity nor honor. Chronic grief isn't beautiful—it's cowardly and contemptible. You've no more right to use grief as an escape than we have to use alcohol or morphine or gambling. Broken hearts are not a rare, personal calamity. They are part of the common lot and should be borne as such. Broken-hearted people should be more useful than other citizens, rather than less so.

It's bad to pity broken-hearted people too much or too long. It's bad to let them pity themselves. I know. My heart was broken and people pitied me. It nearly made a bum of me.

Timely Editorial

Ice Cream's Part.

Ice cream eaters, it seems, will help to win the war. As Roscoe C. Hibben, executive secretary of the International Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers, explained it to the Illinois Dairy Products Association; ice cream uses up surplus cream and milk solids; the farmer thereupon increases production to fill the requirements of the Lend-Lease program; and the Lend-Lease program helps to beat the Axis.

It is not difficult to imagine what will happen once the soda-fountain world geniuses catch the spirit of the thing. We will have Victory Splits, Sangapore Sundaes, Double-Dip Depth Charges and the like. Only slackers will use two straws on one soda. And parents may find it a trifle difficult to refuse popsicles to children who are, after all, only trying to do their bit for democracy.—Chicago Sun.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Find Jap Schools on West Coast Teach Loyalty to Japan, Not U. S.

—By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—After three years' probing of subversive activities, it takes a lot to excite Representative Martin Dies, but the other day the rangy Texan hit on a discovery that took his breath away.

His committee has been making a sweeping inquiry of Jap fifth-columning on the West Coast, including subversive teaching in Japanese language schools located all over Southern California.

Investigators found that from the primary grades up students in these schools are indoctrinated with militarism and the ideology of their Japanese ancestors.

Primer books, for instance, are filled with pictures of the Japanese flag and soldiers, accounts of the greatness of the Jap navy, and stories with titles like "My Brother Enlisted In the Army."

However, the thing that stunned Dies was a portion of a story titled "Submarines." Although written several years ago, it was a perfect description of the sneak Jap submarine attack at Pearl Harbor.

Printed in both Japanese and English, it read: "It is our duty to go underwater when the enemy's battleships draw near and sink them by shooting torpedoes, and at times to go secretly to the enemy's harbor and attack his battleships without warning."

U. S.-Canadian Co-operation.

ON THE morning that the state department issued its famous statement blasting the "so-called" Free French for taking over the tiny North Atlantic islands of St. Pierre-Miquelon, Ray Atherton, chief of the state department's European division, telephoned to Hume Wrong, counselor of the Canadian legation.

Canada is more concerned with the two French islands than any other country because they are nearest her shores; so Atherton read to Canadian Counselor Wrong the statement blasting the Free French.

"What do you think of it?" he asked.

"I think it's too strong," replied Wrong, whose government strongly sympathizes with De-Gaulle.

"Well we can't change it now," replied Atherton. "It's already been issued to the newspapers."

"They why did you want to read it to me?" asked Wrong.

The state department mastermind had no answer.

Note: The state department has been deluged with condemnation for cracking down on the Free French. Some of the most potent criticism has been based upon the fact that we acted without consulting our Allies the Canadians and British, who were equally if not more concerned in the matter than the United States.

Don't Criticize Vichy.

SOME of the most important questions affecting the American press since 1918 have been under discussion in secret conferences held by the new censor, Byron Price; also by the office of facts and figures under able Archibald McLeish; plus representatives of state, war and navy.

Upon the outcome of these discussions will depend in a large measure what war news authorities will permit the U. S. press to print. However, criticism of war policies, of war production and of war mistakes supposedly will not come under the jurisdiction of the censors. This has been the general policy laid down by President Roosevelt, who although severely criticized by the press during his first eight years in office, staunchly champions the right of the press to criticize.

In a recent meeting of government officials to discuss censorship, however, the state department representative proposed that a ban be clamped down on criticism of the state department's activities and policies. He particularly mentioned criticism aimed at the department's constant appeasing of Vichy.

The proposal, however, did get a very cold reception. There was little discussion about the matter at the time. But afterwards, Censor Byron Price confided to colleagues that he did not consider criticism of the state department as falling in the category of censorable news.

Sneak Movie Probe.

SEVERAL days ago, Senator D. Worth Clark announced that the sneak movie probe he headed had been abandoned "in the interest of national unity."

But what he did not mention was the fact that this isolationist-propaganda stunt, pulled off by Clark and Senators Burt Wheeler and Gerald Nye, without senate authorization, is going to cost taxpayers the neat sum of $2,300.

This is the total of the bills incurred by the probe that Clark has quietly slipped the senate audit committee for approval so they can be paid.

Chief among the outlays for which taxpayers will be soaked are two bills for $250 each submitted by Hollywood gossip-columnists James Fidler and George Fisher, for expenses covering their trip to Washington to testify against movie concerns. Biggest bill is $1,800 for stenographers employed to record the emanations of John T. Flynn and other hand-picked isolationist witnesses.

Approval of the bills by the audit committee is certain. One reason is that New Hampshire's isolationist Senator Charles Tobey is a ranking member of the committee. Another reason is the senate's traditional hack-scratching. Whatever senators privately may think about one another, publicly they rarely throw brickbats.

Note: Clark's committee has never made a report and obviously does not intend to, as no money has been asked for this purpose.

Merry-Go-Round.

SAN FRANCISCO, whose politics-playing Mayor Angelo Rossi is a close friend of Civil Defense Director LaGuardia, is rated by authorities as having the worst managed civil defense set-up in the country. More complaints have been received from the Golden Gate metropolis than any other city. . . . Intimates of Tom Corcoran, ex-braintruster, say he is closing up his private law practice preparatory to re-entering the government in an important war post.

Man About Manhattan

—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Time flies dept.: It doesn't seem so long ago that people were talking about a new young actor in "Tol'able David." They said he was so young, and so boyish and earnest. Then he played the part of a Chinaman in "Broken Blossoms" and became a star. His name was Richard Barthelmess. With him in "Broken Blossoms" was Lilian Gish. That doesn't seem so long ago, does it?

But, it was. And now Richard Barthelmess's daughter is on Broadway, and so is Clive Brook's daughter, and so are the daughters of Leopold Stokowski, Stephen Morehouse Avery, and Dwight Deere Wiman.

IT WAS Dwight's idea. He wanted to produce a play called "Letters to Lucerne," and he went to the coast to consult his agent, and she said, "Why don't you use Faith Brook and Mary Barthelmess? They're good friends and they have good names.

Dwight Deere Wiman thought that over. He needed five young girls to play the roles of students in a girls' school in Switzerland. That's what "Letters to Lucerne" is—a drama that shows how war reaches out even to private schools in neutral countries to ruin friendships and sow the seeds of hatred and distrust.

So Wiman came back to New York and asked Sonya Stokowski to read the part of the Polish girl. She was just what Wiman wanted. Miss Stokowski is 20. She was born in London, and despite a great musical heritage—her mother is the well known concert pianist, Olga Samaroff, and her father is the celebrated conductor of symphony orchestras — she plays no musical instrument. With the exception of a few weeks tour with a last season's production she was without dramatic experience. "Letters to Lucernee" was a debut.

THEN Wiman got his own daughter Nancy to play the part of the American girl. Miss Wiman's first experience came in a production of her father's called "Stars in Your Eyes," during which she had just one line to say, "Oh, kiss my foot!"

Because Mary Barthelmess was educated in France and speaks the language fluently, she was cast as the little French girl. She is 18 and her only previous experience was a walk-on part in one of David Selznick's revivals at Santa Barbara last summer.

Clive Brook's daughter is Faith, who was born in York, England, a much older York than the New York in which she now appears. She is 19 and has studied at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, in London. Last summer she made her professional debut on the coast and has been in two motion pictures, "Suspicion," and "Jungle Boy."

PHYLLIS AVERY rounds out the quintet of famous daughters of famous fathers. Her father, Stephen Morehouse Avery, is the well known magazine writer and film executive. His fiction has been read in popular magazines for more than a decade. Like Mary Barthelmess, she also was educated abroad and speaks French like a Parisienne. Last season she appeared in the revival of "Charley's Aunt."

New Skates

—By CALVIN A. BYERS

I couldn't get out of him what he was hoarding his pickle money for, until Christmas came. Then, it turned out, our oldest boy had gone partners with Santa Claus—and there was a wagon for his three younger brothers ("big enough to haul corn in") and for himself, his sister, and his dad, each a pair of skates. His mother received a game called Monopoly—but so far as she is concerned the name has no significance, since several players are required to make it enjoyable. But Santa's helper did a rarely good job of providing for our family's recreation.

I hadn't skated for twenty years, and never did I own a pair of shoe skates before. At Christmastime, though, the grass was green, frogs croaked, and mud was deep in the swamp. Each day of the two weeks vacation from school we were disappointed that the weather was not cold enough to freeze ice. Then—after school resumed—zero weather glazed the pond. The children rushed home and hurried me out with them to try our skates, and see whether I had forgotten my old skill.

Because the cold was so intense, they put their skates on in the living room. Then, starting from the porch, they coasted on sleds down to the ice, with the two smaller brothers acting as more or less helpful escorts, and dad, with an orange crate, bringing up the rear.

I killed some time with that crate, using it as a seat to put on my skates, lacing them slowly and very firmly—admiring the way my feet looked in them, thinking how wonderful they really were, and how many pickles it must have taken to pay for them. I knew, too, that the children's mother would watch from the rear window to observe whatever antics we might put on—or whatever ice might crack.

Meanwhile, the childish amateurs stood up for the first time in their lives on skates, and began to make unsteady progress. A few times they almost fell, but with the elasticity of youth regained their balance.

The pond is scarcely more than twenty feet across. Their circle was necessarily short, but still adequate for learning. I gave them a few pointers about their stroke and knew that in another hour, they would go quite smoothly.

Finally, I stood up, and with a certainty I really did not feel, began to go. I didn't fall—I didn't even think of it, after I had started. I skated round and round the little pond, with the cold wind on my face and the children shouting after me. I waved my arm to the watchers at the window—my wife and the tiny boy.

"How did I do?" I asked her, when we went in. But all the answer I got was a knowing smile, and a murmured, "biggest toad on the puddle."

ATTEND STATE FAIR MEETING

Two From Richland Board Obtain Approval of Aug. 25-28 Date.

Two officers of the Richland county fair board and County Commissioner C. L. Mitchell, a member of the state board, were in Columbus yesterday to attend the annual Ohio fair manager's meeting.

Representing the Richland county fair board at the sessions were C. C. Hout, Mifflin township, new president of the board, and R. D. Hale, Mansfield, secretary.

The board officials obtained approval of Aug. 25-28 as the dates for the Richland county fair unless it is cancelled because of the war.

The fair board two weeks ago tentatively set the fair for Aug. 19-22, but made no plans for the exposition since it is possible that it may be called off if war conditions make it advisable.

County Commissioner Mitchell recommended that it be cancelled, but members of the fair board were reluctant to take action now, believing that fairs and other entertainments are needed to keep up the nation's morale.

If the fair should not be held, provisions will be made for county 4-H clubs to exhibit their projects at a junior fair, board members agreed.

SCOUTS PLAN DEFENSE WORK

Organize 19-Week Course To Train Squads To Act In Case of Emergency.

The initial training course in emergency service work for Boy Scouts under the civilian defense program was launched today evening with 65 scoutmasters and first class scouts 15 years of age and over, taking part in the opening meeting at scout headquarters.

Scout executive Floyd Dent pointed out the reasons for such a program of emergency work, and an outline of requirements and equipment for the course was made.

Minimum requirements for admission to the course are the following seven merit badges: personal health, public health, firemanship, first aid, safety, pathfinding and pioneering.

Instructors for the 19 weeks course, to be held bi-monthly are Carlos Zents, communications and radio; Frank Stahl, firemanship and knots; Lionel Culp, assisting with first aid, and Ray Turner, teaching semaphore signaling.

GIVES WORKERS DEFENSE STAMPS

The proprietor of a Mansfield restaurant announced today that he and his 22 employes had entered into a "defense stamps buying contract" wherein the employes agreed to maintain defense stamps savings booklets which he purchased for them.

A. D. McNew, proprietor of the Max Diner, 15 South Walnut street, said that he had presented the employes with the booklets with $1 worth of stamps already purchased and that the workers had promised to make weekly additions to the booklets.

McNew said all employes signed a contract in which they promised to maintain weekly purchases of the stamps or turn the booklet and stamps already purchased over to the other employes.

There are 16 varieties of edible fish and shellfish in the United States.

As Community Players Rehearse for New Play Tuesday

Mansfield Community Players are beating a path to the courthouse every night to rehearse "George Washington Slept Here," the second Moss Hart-George S. Kaufman comedy to be presented by the organization this season. Slated for production at John Simpson Junior auditorium Tuesday night, under the direction of Mrs. E. K. Bacon the three-act comedy will introduce a number of new faces along with the other players more familiar to local audiences. The News-Journal photographer caught the foursome, shown at the left, as they were inspecting a document to be used in the play. Pictured left to right are Atty. H. H. Schettler, H. H. Clingan, Rev. Glenn Lewis and Patty Palmer. Schettler and the pastor stepped into leading roles almost at the eleventh hour when illness and departure from the city created two vacancies in the cast. New players in the company are shown at the right discussing some fine points of the script. Pictured left to right are J. Reynolds Hodgson, Mrs. Joy Herbert, Mrs. E. M. Olin, R. C. Smith and Connor Fay.

WAIT MONTH TO PAY TAX BILLS

Taxpayers Must Mark Time, Treasurer Says; Books To Open on Feb. 15.

Richland countians who want to pay their real estate taxes early "to get them out of the way" will have to wait another month before they start paying, County Treasurer Charles C. Payne said today.

Tax books probably will not open before Feb. 15 because the tax duplicates won't be ready until then, the treasurer said.

He said statements will be mailed to property owners before the books open, notifying them in plenty of time the amount they owe for the first half of the year. He urged taxpayers not to call at his office expecting to pay their taxes until the statements have been mailed.

Payments cannot be accepted now, he pointed out, because the duplicates showing the amount of taxes due have not been received from the auditor.

ENGINEER BACK FROM MEETING

County Engineer Howard Sword, who has returned from the state convention of county engineers and Ohio road builders in Columbus, offered the services of his staff and the use of county equipment to the county civilian defense committee for any emergency duties that may arise.

The engineer said similar offers had been made by other engineers who are members of the Northeast Ohio County Engineers association.

Attending the Columbus convention with Sword were Walter E. Rusk, Randall C. Barrett, and Stanley Horn, members of his staff.

July 24, 1947, will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the advent of pioneers into Salt Lake valley.

BROADEN NIGHT CLASSES SOON

Course In Radio Engineering To Be Conducted at Ashland College.

ASHLAND — An extensive night course in radio to be conducted at Ashland college, was assured here today by college officials.

The course, leading to definite training as a radio technician will be sufficiently comprehensive to allow one to accept appointment in the engineering department of a broadcasting station.

The course is sponsored by the federal government to train men to set up, repair and operate the multitudes of radios necessary in modern mechanized warfare.

"Completion of the course will give the man inducted into the army a tremendous advantage in securing promotions," Dr. Paul Taylor, Physics professor said. "The course includes lectures, experiments and work periods for nine hours a week over a period of four months," he continued

The course is being given without tuition or service charge to the student. The course is open to any high school graduate who has completed two years of mathematics and one year of physics The training is not open to students at present enrolled in college except under very unusual circumstances and does not allow credit toward a college degree.

"This is an opportunity for the adults of this section of the state which may never again be offered," Dean R. R. Haun stated in urging any who are interested in such technical training to get in touch with him immediately.

BONNIE DE YARMON TO WED E. W. CONSTANCE

Couple to Exchange Marriage Vows on Feb. 8 Before Altar of the First Methodist Church; Rev. George Constance to Officiate.

MRS. KATHRYN DE YARMON, Baldwin avenue, announced the approaching marriage date of her daughter, Bonnie, to Edwin W. Constance, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Constance, West Third street, at a party held at her home Wednesday evening. Miss De Yarmon and Mr. Constance will exchange nuptial vows on Feb. 8 before the altar of the First Methodist church. Rev. George Constance, brother of the prospective bridegroom, will officiate at the wedding. He will be assisted by Rev. E. G. Corwin.

Games and contests were played during the evening by the 12 guests in attendance. Prizes were won by Miss Margaret Hammond and Miss Eileen Marlow. Luncheon was served at small tables decorated with yellow and green hearts tied to white, lighted tapers with pastel ribbons. On the end of each ribbon was a miniature cupid inscribed with the date of the marriage.

At the close of the evening the bride-elect was presented with a gift of crystal by her mother. Miss De Yarmon has chosen Miss Donna Mae Bowman to serve as her maid-of-honor. Miss Margaret Hammond will be the bridesmaid. Gordon Tropf will serve as best man and ushers will be David and William Constance.

Missionary Society Has Membership Dinner at Church

Annual membership dinner of the Florence Welty Missionary society was held recently in the assembly room of the First Lutheran church. Twenty-two members and 11 guests were present. The table was attractively decorated in red, white and blue. Centerpiece consisted of red carnations and white chrysanthemums. Leaders were the Misses Marie Hoover, Frances Eller and Cleo Shoup.

Business meeting was in charge of the new officers: Mrs. Gladys Brightbill, president; Mrs. Shoup, vice president; Mrs. Marilyn Clippel, secretary; and Miss Virginia Dye, treasurer. The new president appointed committees for the coming year. Plans were made for a social meeting to be held in connection with the regular church service on Sunday evening, Feb. 1. A pageant will be presented by the Missionary society.

There are three new members: Mrs. Milton Johnson, Mrs. Leonard Hautzenroeder and Mrs. Roy Reese. Hostesses were Miss Doris Simmons, Miss Dye, Mrs. Edna Stevens and Mrs. Mary Wagner. Date of the next meeting is Feb. 9. Place will be announced later.

Wedding Takes Place In Grace Episcopal Church

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones, of Burlingham, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Lucille, to Sterio George Dandakis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dandakis, 278 West Sixth street. The wedding took place on Jan. 8 in the Grace Episcopal church. Double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Glenn Lewis at 9:30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Steven Georgopoulos were the couple's attendants.

For her wedding, Miss Jones wore a bridal gown of white satin trimmed with lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias, carnations and sweetpeas.

After the ceremony, a small reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Dandakis are making their home.

The bride was graduated from Burlingham high school and is employed at the A. and P. Supermarket on Bowman street. The bridegroom is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school and is employed by the Mansfield Structural and Erecting company.

P. T. A. Members Vote to Buy Band Uniforms

Decision was made at the recent meeting of the Newman school P. T. A. to purchase new uniforms for the basketball team. The Misses Doris Mann and Frances Wolf were named to have charge of the purchasing. Members also voted to buy additional equipment for the school kitchen.

Date for the next meeting has been changed from Feb. 10 to Feb. 3, in order to avoid conflict with meetings of other groups. On the first Tuesday in February, the P. T. A. will sponsor a Newman school "homecoming" celebration. Mrs. Peter Keiser will have charge of the program and Mrs. Peter Halvax will arrange for refreshments and decorations. Publicity chairman is Mrs. Victor Alderson.

Mrs. Lois Pennell, librarian for the Newman school branch of the Mansfield Public Library, invited the members to attend the Book Fair and lecture at the library, and urged everyone to contribute to the Victory Book campaign.

For the very entertaining program, Mrs. Alderson read a sketch concerning outstanding events which occurred between the years 1913 and 1941. Miss Margaret Hopper played the songs most popular during each year and the audience guessed the titles. Miss Mann then led group singing of these songs.

Luncheon Meet Held Recently By Local D. A. R.

Mary Washington chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held a dessert-luncheon at the Women's club recently. Mrs. W. L. Miller and Mrs. Edward Lockridge presided at luncheon table. Twenty-five members and one guest, Mrs. James B. Patton of Columbus, state regent and state chairman of national defense through patriotic education, were in attendance.

During the business session a letter was read from the student loan girl, Alice Garfield. Mrs. D. N. Roller gave an interesting talk on the "Present Emergency" and told the group what an important part each woman plays in the defense of our country. Mrs. Patton, guest speaker, gave an informative talk on "National Defense Through Patriotic Education."

Mrs. George Searle played the new march of the D. A. R. which was written by Margaret Upcraft, a D. A. R. member. A dessert-luncheon will be held Feb. 9 at the Mansfield-Leland hotel. Hostesses will be Mrs. P. B. Dietrichson, Mrs. Carl Hartenfels, Mrs. Paul Stoodt and Mrs. V. E. Vining.

Rabbit Supper Enjoyed by Group

Crown and Cross class of St. Matthew's Lutheran church had its annual rabbit supper at the church recently. The rabbits were furnished by Edward Schmid, who had shot them during the hunting season and had had them frozen until this time.

Speaker for the evening was Norman Wolfe, county auditor, whose subject was "The Financial Set-Up of Richland County." Committee in charge for the evening was comprised of John Funston, Merle Pittenger and J. F. Orr. Dinner was prepared by Robert Burns and Robert Pore.

Sister Gives Party For Mrs. Dinges

Mrs. Mary Dinges, Springmill street, was surprised on her birthday recently when her sister, Mrs. Fred Schneuerer entertained in her honor. Guests were Mrs. Joseph Bamberger, Mrs. O. R. Abbott, Mrs. Esther Oyster, Mrs. Myrtle Copper, Mrs. Clyde Woolard.

Prizes in contests were won by Mrs. Oyster, Charlene Dinges and Mrs. Bamberger. The honoree received many nice gifts and greeting cards. Pink and white appointments were used when refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mary E. Miller Given Pre-Nuptial Party Wednesday

First in a series of pre-nuptial parties planned for Miss Mary Elizabeth Miller, bride-elect of Robert Betz, was given last evening in the form of a dessert-bridge at the Colonial Guest House by Miss Mary Lou Hout and Mrs. C. E. Nail, of Forest Hill, N. Y.

Pastel flowers were arranged on a mirror as the centerpiece for the long table. Individual corsages of pink and white flowers were given to the 14 guests. Mirrored match boxes were used as place cards. Color scheme for the party was pink and white.

Three tables of bridge were in play during the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. John L. Catlett and Miss Miriam Bean. Miss Miller was recipient of a shower of miscellaneous gifts and a gift of silver from the hostesses. Miss Miller and Mr. Betz will be united in marriage on Feb. 8 at 3:30 p. m. in the First Lutheran church.

Next party in the bride-elect's honor will be given on Jan. 27 by Miss Mary Garver.

Mrs. Hill Entertains Library Committee

Mrs. Edith Hill, 382 Davis road, was hostess recently to nine members and one guest. Miss Ruth Roesch, of the library committee of the Women of the Moose. A short business session was conducted by Miss DaLee Schroff. Remainder of the evening was spent socially. Scrapbooks were made and luncheon was served at a late hour.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hazel Hilborn, 12 Cook road. Mrs. Blanche Cantrell will be associate hostess.

A. A. U. W.

The history and geography of Japan in relation to present day affairs was studied at the meeting of the Current Problems group of the A. A. U. W. held recently at the home of Miss Margaret DeWitt, Helen avenue. Following the study each member was given a written examination. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. L. Zimmerman, Mrs. Harry L. Knox and Mrs. Howard Diller. The next meeting of the group will be held Jan. 27 at the home of Mrs. Knox on Edgewood road.

Dorcas Class Has Regular Meeting

Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Robert Myers, were present for the meeting of the Dorcas class of St. Matthew's Lutheran church which was held recently at the home of Mrs. Raymond Myers, 425 West Fifth street. Mrs. Carl Willis conducted the devotional service and presided for the business session.

Contest prizes were won by Mrs. J. W. Ness and Mrs. Willis. Refreshments were served. Date of the next meeting is Feb. 10. Mrs. William Roth will entertain at her home, 450 Glessner avenue.

B. AND P. W. MEMBERS HOLD PARTY AT HOTEL

"Back to School Days" Party Held Wednesday Evening at Mansfield-Leland Hotel; New Members Welcomed Into Organization.

MANSFIELD Business and Professional Women wore their best overalls, short skirts and bright ribbons to their "Back to School" party held Wednesday evening in the ballroom of the Mansfield-Leland hotel. Club members who were not attired in their "school day best" served as members of the board of directors. Dinner was served as a U-shaped table appropriately decorated with stick candy, chewing gum, dunce daps, tablets, pencils, books and bean bags and large red apples for the teacher.

The evening's program included lessons in "readin,' ritin' and rithmetic" and an old-fashioned spelling bee. Miss Mary Elizabeth Gruber, president, conducted a short business session. During the session members repeated the American creed. Standing committee reports were given and plans made to attend a meeting of the Shelby Business and Professional Women's club on Jan. 29. Members planning to attend the meeting in Shelby should give reservations to Miss Lenna Mateer, transportation chairman, or Miss Gruber before Jan. 26.

Four new members, Miss Margaret Yarian, Mrs. Mary Weinberger, Miss Edna Dean and Miss Esther Smith, were welcomed into the club. Plans were made to go on a hike on Jan. 25. Hostesses for the meeting were the Misses - Florence Cairns, Helen Herring Lenna Mateer and Esther Snyder, social committee members and the Misses Thelma Bogan, Lucille Beattie, Eileen Stout, Thelma Martin and Ida Willis, hospitality committee members.

Junior Sororis Meets Wednesday

The home of Mrs. Eugene Linham, 33 Glenwood boulevard, was the scene Wednesday evening of a meeting of the Mansfield Junior Sorosis club. After the business meeting, open discussion was held on "Agriculture As It Pertains to The Defense Program."

Miss Edith Beck gave an interesting paper on "Outstanding Women of Early America." Next meeting will be held on Jan. 28 at the home of Miss Dorothy Moser, 56 Greenwood avenue.

Address Given By Atty. Moore For Hedges P. T. A.

Eugene Boling, president, conducted the recent meeting of the Hedges P. T. A. which was held at the school. Fifty members were in attendance. Group singing was led by Edward Kindinger. Reports of the P. T. A. Council were given by Mr. Boling and Mr. Kindinger. Date announced for the Hedges lawn fete is May 29.

Mrs. Raymond Wagoner was program chairman for the evening. Speaker was Atty. Marshall Moore, who chose as his subject, "The Family Builds Citizenship." Two vocal duets presented by Ruth and Naomi Wagoner were "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" and "Red Sails." Pauline Christoff, of the Trick Brothers Studio, played two accordion solos, "America the Beautiful" and "Home Sweet Home." Refreshments were served by Mrs. Paul Stahl and Mrs. Eugene Boling.

"The Authority on Authorities"

NEGATIVE VALUE AIDS

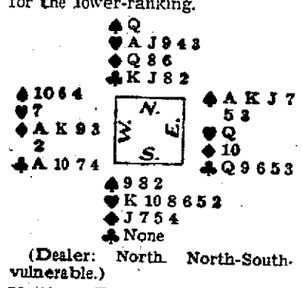
There are many points of value in fourth-best leads. If you and your partner are used to making them, to help each count the other's length as well as the number of higher and lower cards held by your opponents, failure to offer the fourth bests conveys some kind of other message. If the card can plainly be read as higher than the fourth-best, and is not one of your honors, it indicates a desire for the higher-ranking of the side suits when your partner has the lead. If it is clearly lower, it asks for the lower-ranking.



(Dealer: North. North-South vulnerable.)

| North | East | South | West |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 ♥ | 1 ♠ | 4 ♥ | 4 ♠ |
| Pass | Pass | 5 ♥ | Pass |
| Pass | 5 ♠ | | |

North on this deal, in the national women's team championship at Richmond, Va., was Mrs. H. L. Peterson, great teacher of Philadelphia and splendid exemplar of what she teaches. In the South, as her partner, was one of her star pupils, Mrs. Benjamin Golder. That her pupil has learned what she was taught was shown emphatically by this deal.

Mrs. Golder, feeling that the situation was desperate if the contract was to be beaten, figured out the possibilities of the defnese before she made a lead. Knowing that the natural card to offer was the fourth-best heart, the 6, she realized that the 8 or 10 would call for a diamond return and the 2 would signal for a club. So she led the heart 2.

The moment she saw that, Mrs. Peterson knew what it meant. She won the trick with her A and sent back the club 2, which Mrs. Golder ruffed. That was all for their side except the club K, which could not be shut out and which later took a trick—the setting trick because the club ruff had been obtained.

Tomorrow's Problem.

Against South's 4-Hearts, if West leads the spade 5 to the K, wins the second heart with his K, leads the club Q and club J, the declarer ducking both clubs in the dummy, what should East do on the second of these, and why?

High Style Fashions, Fancy Work

A Pencil-Slim Figure is yours if you wear this new Marian Martin creation for mature women! The subtle panelling of Pattern 9986 contrives to give height to a shorter figure and minimizes a large waistline. The darted side bodice sections come below the waist in an eye-deceiving curve . . . the sash that begins at either side is trim too. Aren't the curved shoulder yokes and the scalloped neckline attractive? The optional sleeve-bands are curved to match. You'll look still thinner in a contrast version with the center panel made of another fabric. The Sew Chart helps you finish this frock nicely—and shows you may add a touch of ricrac.

Pattern 9986 may be ordered only in women's sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 36 requires 3⅝ yards 35 inch fabric.

Send Fifteen Cents in coins for this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your Size, Name, Address and Style Number.

Send your orders to The Mansfield News-Journal, Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.

"Pitfalls of Love"

(A Sequel to Marriage Meddlers)

By ADELE GARRISON

I STARED at my father in almost terrified bewilderment at the uncanny guess he had made.

"If this were two hundred years ago," I said, making a sorry attempt at a smile, "you would be burned at the stake as a wizard. However did you guess that?"

"Then it's true?" he asked.

"Yes, unfortunately, it is," I answered.

"You mean," he said, quick alarm in his voice, "that she refuses to go on with it?"

"No, no," I almost shouted. "But I had to employ a little unholy blackmail, in the form of a threat to make her voice her refusal to you personally, instead of to me, before she agreed to go on."

My father laughed, a sound so rare with him that I looked at him uneasily.

Spencer Praises Madge

"No, I am still in my right mind," he said. "And I'll answer reason I could guess Mary's reaction was because I know you so thoroughly, my darling."

He stopped and looked at me with eyes tender, yet keenly searching my face.

"You are extremely efficient and clever at a task such as getting Noel to agree to this arrangement," he said. "And the fact that you also kept Mary in line is further proof of your ability. But you are apt to spoil your own work by your—sentiment, shall we say. It is distinctly not sentimentality, and it does your heart credit, if not your judgment.

"I suppose you felt so sorry for Noel that you wanted to impress Mary with the necessity for being kind and gentle with him."

Keen Intuition

"You are being uncanny again," I said, though with lips a little stiff, for his reproof was cutting, although I knew he did not mean it to be.

"No, only comprehending," he answered, "but, thanks to you, everything is all right. Noel will raise no objections and Mary will go on with her engagements with Redfield. But where is Mary? Busy being kind and gentle to her husband, I suppose."

I knew that he did not mean his words to sound like a sneer, but to my overwrought imagination, they had exactly that intonation. I flushed painfully, not only because of what he was saying, but because of my consciousness of the disappointing answer I must give him.

"Yes, she is over with Noel," I said, "and I am afraid you will be angry at what I must tell you now."

He gave me another keen glance, and I knew that my flushed face and slightly trembling hands did not escape his observation.

"I think you may tell me almost anything," he said, "after the almost insuperable task with Noel and Mary you have just accomplished."

My spirits leaped from nadir to zenith in a trice.

"You really mean that?" I asked banally—and tremulously.

"I really mean it," he said, "so tell me your piece of news at once. But first, when is Mary going to see Redfield? I hope there is going to be no delay on that."

Nadir and zenth changed places again, so far as my spirits were concerned, but there was no use dodging the issue and I girded myself for the fray.

"We do not even know where Stephen Redfield is," I said. "I shall have to find that out from Philip Veritzen, who spirited the actor out of Noel's way last evening. And I have promised Mary that I will see him first and pave the way for her first meeting with him, since the scathing verbal dressing down she gave him last night."

"Yes, that's a wise precaution," he assented quickly.

Outlines Her Plan

"I have a talking point of approach which I want to submit to you later for your approval."

"Presently, presently," he said a bit impatiently. "You haven't told me yet when Mary is going to stage this reconciliation with her leading man."

There was no use dodging the issue any longer. I gave him the only answer I had.

"She is going to get in his way, and make it look accidental, tonight at the theater when they are getting ready for the play."

HOROSCOPE

For Friday, January 16.

Most propitious and surprising developments may be read from an interesting chain of planetary configurations. All sorts of eventful, unexpected and breathtaking circumstances are likely to arise in bewildering haste and with romantic and dramatic aspects that may reach far in shaping the future happiness and destiny. Elders and strangers figure in this dynamic state of affairs with real possessions, property and investments taking a sudden upturn of enduring value.

Those whose birthday it is may be on the threshold of a year which may be the turning point of a life of security, success, dramatic and romantic denouement of a thrilling as well as enduring happiness. Strangers as well as elders contribute to this felicity and surprising benefits, with bequests, trusts, wills, and other substantial endowments promising safety for future years. Land values and investments also increase.

How to make Pillsbury's Trio Layer Cake

Three big, delicious cakes in one!

Complete recipe:

1. Sift and measure 3 c. Enriched Pillsbury's Best Flour. (Two B-vitamins and iron now increase the health value of Pillsbury's Best—with no change in its inviting appearance, wheaty flavor, and excellent baking quality.) Add 3¼ tsps. baking powder (or 2½ tsps. double-acting) and ¾ tsp. salt. Sift three times. (Don't rely on a dash of hope and a pinch of trust when it comes to baking—use flour that's proved itself before it enters your kitchen. Before any wheat is bought for Pillsbury's Best, scours go right out in the harvest fields and send in samples. These are milled into flour, and actually baked into foods. And—even then—the flour must pass rigid baking tests 4 to 6 times a day during milling. Pillsbury's Best is BAKE-PROVED to protect your baking success.) 2. Cream 1 c. shortening till light; gradually beat in 1¼ c. sugar till fluffy. 3. Add 4 eggs, one at a time; beat about 1 min. after each. 4. Add dry ingredients alternately with 1 c. milk and 1 tsp. vanilla. Mix well after each addition; beat well at end. (Note the smooth, fluffy texture . . . the delicate, creamy color of your Pillsbury's Best batter . . . assured by hourly color tests during milling!) 5. Divide batter in thirds. To ⅓ add ¾ tsp. cinnamon, ½ tsp. allspice, ¼ tsp. cloves, and ¼ tsp. nutmeg; blend well. To second portion add (combined) 2 tsps. sugar, 2 tsps. butter, ½ tsp. soda, 1½ Tbsps. hot water, and 1 sq. (1 oz.) unsweetened chocolate (melted and cooled); blend well. Leave rest of batter plain. Turn each batter separately into 3 greased, lined 9-in. layer pans . . . and see how fluffy-light it is! Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 25 to 30 min. When done, allow the fragrant, delicate layers to cool, then spread vanilla cream filling between layers and cover top and sides with chocolate frosting. Get Pillsbury's Best from your grocer today—and turn "just another meal" into a special occasion with Pillsbury's TRIO LAYER CAKE. And in every bag of Enriched Pillsbury's Best . . . more BAKE-PROVED, jury-picked recipes for you!

Amazing Cough Relief, Mixed In Your Kitchen

No Trouble. No Cooking. Saves Big Dollars.

Yes, ma'am, right in your own kitchen, you can easily mix a cough medicine that is a wonder for quick results, and gives you about four times as much for your money. And it's no trouble—a child could do it.

You'll need a syrup. Make it by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed.

Now get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, and pour it into a pint bottle. Then add your syrup. There you have a full pint of really remarkable medicine for coughs due to colds. It lasts a family a long time, and tastes fine—children love it.

And does it do the work! You'll say it beats anything you ever tried. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Eases the soreness, and lets you rest at night.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for prompt action on throat and bronchial membranes. Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.

SEES 'YOUNG MAN'S WORLD' FOLLOWING WAR

Tharpe Tells J. A. C. Audience That Great Opportunities Are Ahead For Youth.

"The new world after this war will be a young man's world—a world to reconstruct with new products being developed now, and a world with new markets to develop . . . this is a great opportunity for youth."

Speaking before a crowd of approximately 200 Junior Association of Comemirce members and their employers gathered in the Westinghouse auditorium last night for the second annual Bosses' Night party sponsored by the Mansfield J. A. C. as the highlight of their national J. A. C. week, E. M. Tharpe, vice president of Ohio Fuel Gas company, reassured his audience thusly.

Objecting to the word "defense," in our everyday language, Tharpe said that now that the question of interventionism vs. isolationism was laid, our biggest job is winning the war.

"We are now on the aggressive since 'Pearl Harbor.' This is not "defense," it is offence, he shouted. "We're going to win this war by getting out there and doing something.

"Hitler made this war a machine war, and that's right down our alley," Tharpe declared. He said that this is our kind of a war with what we can do with machines counting.

Tharpe said that regardless of whether we aproved of all the present administration has done to date or not, we are and should back it 100 per cent to win this war.

"Today the young man has the greatest outlook and field of opportunity for progress that men of any generation ever had," Tharpe declared, adding however, that "first we must get our feet on the ground today and do something, because too many were still in a state of complacency."

"We're going to have a democracy," he declared in closing, "and we'll find out how we can make our old world run smoothly."

Don Kirkpatrick introduced Tharpe, final speaker on the program, after Secretary Peter J. Schadek had made the annual report of the organization's activities for the past year, and Francis Lang, state J. A. C. president, made a brief talk reviewing the background and growth of the J. A. C. movement in the U. S. A.

Speaker, Other Figures At J. A. C. 'Bosses' Night'

Principal speaker at last night's "Bosses' Night" party staged by the Mansfield Junior Association of Commerce was E. M. Tharpe, vice president of the Ohio Fuel Gas company, shown at the left shaking hands with J. A. C. President Don Kirkpatrick, while Peter J. Schadek, club secretary, looks on. In the center photo Tharpe clinches a point with clenched fists as he tells Jayceers and their bosses that after the war we will have a "young man's world." Amused at an after-dinner joke told by Tharpe are, left to right, Rev. G. E. Swoyer, George Cameron, national vice president of the J. A. C.'s, Don Kirkpatrick, president of the Mansfield J. A. C.'s and Francis Lang, Ohio state president of J. A. C.'s.

MEET TODAY

Farm Bureau Credit Union Members Hold Session.

Annual meeting of the shareholders of the Richland Farm Bureau Credit Union, Inc., is to be held today at 8 p. m., in the John's park pavilion.

Selection of three new members of the board of directors and the reading of annual reports by Carl Smith, credit union president, will take place at the meeting.

The union is a loan agency through which shareholders loan money to other members of the organization and invest their savings.

Following the business meeting, musical selections will be presented by the Farm Bureau chorus and a motion picture will be shown by E. R. Hershey, a resident of Weller township. The motion picture will deal with nature studies made on Hershey's travels.

Refreshments will be served, Davis said.

COUNTY TO GET MORE REVENUE

Auditor Says $2,000 Increase To Be Made Under New Sales Tax Distribution.

Richland county will receive $2,000 more in state sales tax money this year than in 1941 under a new state distribution plan, County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe said today.

The revised allocation system will give the county and its subdivisions approximately $111,500 this year, the auditor said. The funds are received monthly by the county and distributed quarterly by the county auditor to cities, villages, and townships for operating expenses.

The county has just received its share of the January receipts which amounted to $9,288. The December share was $9,115. Monthly allocations remain the same throughout the year.

The new distribution formula consists of the ratio of the average of the county real estate, public utility, and tangible personal property tax valuations and the value of municipal corporations in the year from 1926 to 1940 to the average aggregate of all municipal valuation in the state.

ORGANIZE CLASS

Organization of a first aid class for registered nurses in the Richland area is now under way, according to Miss Faye Chamberlain, chairman of the nurses' division under civilian defense.

The two-hour classes will begin Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 7:30 p. m., and will be held weekly until the 20-hour course is completed. Bernard C. Hardy, first aid director of Richland county chapter of the Red Cross, will instruct the classes.

The News-Journal Carriers Have Volunteered to Sell and Deliver Defense Savings Stamps to Your Home!

Most Americans have asked themselves what they can do to help the National Defense Program. There is one thing that everyone can do . . . BUY A SHARE IN AMERICA!
If you and the millions in the Nation like you invest as little as 10 cents a week in Defense Savings Stamps, there will be the "Millions for Defense" that America needs in this hour of emergency . . . And when the emergency has passed YOU will have a tidy nest egg that you might never have saved otherwise.

HERE IS THE PLAN . . . IT'S SIMPLE—

Our Newspaper Carriers have volunteered to serve as "Official U. S. Defense Agents for Defense Stamp Sales." In so doing they have pledged themselves to call on you and solicit your order for a WEEKLY DELIVERY of DEFENSE SAVINGS STAMPS TO YOUR HOME.

Your Carrier will ask you for your Defense Stamp order. Fill out the ORDER BLANK on the lower left-hand side of this page and have it ready for him when he calls.

The important thing is to get started saving stamps and helping Uncle Sam. The boys will sell ONLY 10c Defense Savings Stamps. Order as many as you would like to buy each week . . . . the more you save, sooner you will be able to convert the stamps into an interest-bearing bond, and the more you will have accumulated when the emergency ends.

As stated above, the Carrier will ask you for your order for stamps and will accept from you the filled-out order blank published below. The following week he will deliver the stamps which you have ordered and bring you a 10c Defense Savings Stamp Album, which holds $18.70 in Defense Savings Stamps and when filled, can be exchanged with 5c in coin, for a $25 Defense Bond. This weekly delivery of stamps will continue as long as you desire.

The boys will collect no money in advance for the stamps! you will pay for them when they are delivered. START NOW; Here is a simple, convenient way to save and an opportunity to help your Nation in its hour of need.

Carpenter School P. T. A. Meets

Seventy-five members were in attendance when the Carpenter school P. T. A. met recently at the school. Robert Butts, director of lighting for the Ohio Public Service in the Cleveland district, gave an interesting talk on "Better Lighting for Schools." He was introduced by R. M. Beatty, chairman of the program committee.

After a short business session, the meeting was adjourned. Next meeting will be held at the school at 7:30 p. m. on Feb. 10. Arrangements for this month's meeting were in charge of Mrs. Cecil Creamer, chairman of the hospitality committee.

Band Parents Enjoy Program

Members of the Band Parents' club of Johnny Appleseed Junior high school were exceptionally pleased with the band's performance at a meeting which was held recently at the school. Four members were played to open the program. Film, "The Keeper of the Bees," based on the book of the same name by Gene Stratton Porter, was shown.

Betty Miller gave two piano solos and Ralph Whipp did a tap dance. Piano accompaniment was furnished by Juanita Hillman. A comedy sketch which provoked much laughter was presented by William Klinger on the violin and Robert Fox at the piano.

Amazing Cough Relief, Mixed In Your Kitchen

No Trouble. No Cooking. Saves Big Dollars.

Yes, ma'am, right in your own kitchen, you can easily mix a cough medicine that is a wonder for quick results, and gives you about four times as much for your money. And it's no trouble—a child could do it.

You'll need a syrup. Make it by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed.

Now get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, and pour it into a pint bottle. Then add your syrup. There you have a full pint of really remarkable medicine for coughs due to colds. It lasts a family a long time, and tastes fine—children love it.

And does it do the work! You'll say it beats anything you ever tried. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Eases the soreness, and lets you rest at night.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for prompt action on throat and bronchial membranes. Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.

SEES 'YOUNG MAN'S WORLD' FOLLOWING WAR

Tharpe Tells J. A. C. Audience That Great Opportunities Are Ahead For Youth.

"The new world after this war will be a young man's world—a world to reconstruct with new products being developed now, and a world with new markets to develop . . . this is a great opportunity for youth."

Speaking before a crowd of approximately 200 Junior Association of Comemrce members and their employers gathered in the Westinghouse auditorium last night for the second annual Bosses' Night party sponsored by the Mansfield J. A. C. as the highlight of their national J. A. C. week, E. M. Tharpe, vice president of Ohio Fuel Gas company, reassured his audience thusly.

Objecting to the word "defense," in our everyday language, Tharpe said that now that the question of interventionism vs. isolationism was laid, our biggest job is winning the war.

"We are now on the aggressive since 'Pearl Harbor.' This is not "defense," it is offence, he shouted. "We're going to win this war by getting out there and doing something.

"Hitler made this war a machine war, and that's right down our alley," Tharpe declared. He said that this is our kind of a war with what we can do with machines counting.

Tharpe said that regardless of whether we aproved of all the present administration has done to date or not, we are and should back it 100 per cent to win this war.

"Today the young man has the greatest outlook and field of opportunity for progress that men of any generation ever had," Tharpe declared, adding however, that "first we must get our feet on the ground today and do something, because too many were still in a state of complacency."

"We're going to have a democracy," he declared in closing, "and we'll find out how we can make our old world run smoothly."

Don Kirkpatrick introduced Tharpe, final speaker on the program, after Secretary Peter J. Schadek had made the annual report of the organization's activities for the past year, and Francis Lang, state J. A. C. president, made a brief talk reviewing the background and growth of the J. A. C. movement in the U. S. A.

Principal speaker at last night's "Bosses' Night" party staged by the Mansfield Junior Association of Commerce was E. M. Tharpe, vice president of the Ohio Fuel Gas company, shown at the left shaking hands with J. A. C. President Don Kirkpatrick, while Peter J. Schadek, club secretary, looks on. In the center photo Tharpe clinches a point with clenched fists as he tells Jayceers and their bosses that after the war we will have a "young man's world." Amused at an after-dinner joke told by Tharpe are, left to right, Rev. G. E. Swoyer, George Cameron, national vice president of the J. A. C.'s, Don Kirkpatrick, president of the Mansfield J. A. C.; and Francis Lang, Ohio state president of J. A. C.'s.

MEET TODAY

Farm Bureau Credit Union Members Hold Session.

Annual meeting of the shareholders of the Richland Farm Bureau Credit Union, Inc., is to be held today at 8 p. m., in the John's park pavilion.

Selection of three new members of the board of directors and the reading of annual reports by Carl Smith, credit union president, will take place at the meeting.

The union is a loan agency through which shareholders loan money to other members of the organization and invest their savings.

Following the business meeting, musical selections will be presented by the Farm Bureau chorus and a motion picture will be shown by E. R. Hershey, a resident of Weller township. The motion picture will deal with nature studies made on Hershey's travels.

Refreshments will be served, Davis said.

COUNTY TO GET MORE REVENUE

Auditor Says $2,000 Increase To Be Made Under New Sales Tax Distribution.

Richland county will receive $2,000 more in state sales tax money this year than in 1941 under a new state distribution plan, County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe said today.

The revised allocation system will give the county and its subdivisions approximately $111,300 this year, the auditor said. The funds are received monthly by the county and distributed quarterly by the county auditor to cities, villages, and townships for operating expenses.

The county has just received its share of the January receipts which amounted to $9,288. The December share was $9,115. Monthly allocations remain the same throughout the year.

The new distribution formula consists of the ratio of the average of the county real estate, public utility, and tangible personal property tax valuations and the value of municipal corporations in the year from 1926 to 1940 to the average aggregate of all municipal valuation in the state.

ORGANIZE CLASS

Organization of a first aid class for registered nurses in the Richland area is now under way, according to Miss Faye Chamberlain, chairman of the nurses' division under civilian defense.

The two-hour classes will begin Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 7:30 p. m., and will be held weekly until the 20-hour course is completed. Bernard C. Hardy, first aid director of Richland county chapter of the Red Cross, will instruct the classes.

FILES REPORT ON SANATORIUM PROGRAM IN '41

Dr. Fisher Says Average of 24 Patients Cared For at County Institution.

The Richland county Tuberculosis sanatorium had 69 new admissions in its first 17½ months of operation, according to a report released today by Dr. Lincoln Fisher, medical superintendent.

Recently taken over by the Richland county commissioners upon a straight rental basis of the property at $500 per month the sanatorium has had 11,923 patient days with an average daily census of 24 patients since it became a county institution.

Twenty-four patients have been discharged, Dr. Fisher's report showed and of this number 18 were apparently arrested, three were quiescent, two were improved and one was unimproved.

Mortality within the institution consisted of 12 deaths among the far advanced cases and one death from pulmonary cancer.

A total of 1,152 artificial pneumothorax and other collapse operations were performed on 47 patients. A considerable number of these patients have been working or are able to work full-time, Dr. Fisher's report showed.

Upwards of 1,400 fluroscopic examinations also 143 chest X-rays have been made at the sanatorium in addition to routine laboratory work. Some 150 out-patients have been re-checked periodically through the Tuberculosis Dispensary Clinics and by home examinations.

END PARLEYS

Westinghouse Representatives to Close Session Here Today.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

GEN. JOHNSON: Wants Compromise On Price Control Bill

By GEN. HUGH S. JOHNSON

WASHINGTON—It is too early and facts are too few to be discussing in a critical manner the grand strategy of this war, although the British press seems to have no hesitation in doing so.

There was nothing new in Secretary Knox's statement to the effect that it is based on a conviction that Hitler is the key to winnnig or losing of the war, and that we can afford to fight a defensive or delaying action in the Pacific while we concentrate men and material on wiping the European slate clean of that abomination and attend to the Japs later.

Gen. Johnson.

Broad hints, if not outright statements, were made to this effect by both the British prime minister and the president.

Exactly what is proposed is known to a very few men even in the war department. There is little or no indication of whatever plan had been adopted, if any, in the armament and training of our new forces.

One fact stands out. The results of that strategy, up to date, have humiliated us in the Philippines and will almost certainly force us to lower the flag not merely there but in all our far eastern bases and points of support.

Our first line of defense, Hawaii, has been raided with grievous losses to us in prestige and in naval and air power. We are already cut off from the great primary sources of strategic raw material—notably rubber and tin. Japanese war planes have navigated our Pacific coast as far north as San Francisco.

For the British the effect has been even more serious. Driven from most of China and Malaya, not only has her greatest naval base been practically surrounded, but India is at least threatened and the East Indies are being rapidly occupied.

All these things do not constitute merely minor reverses to be expected in the early feeling-out process of any great campaign. They are substantial losses—gaping wounds — from which it will take a violent turn of fortune's wheel and a great deal of time to recuperate.

As for taking these possessions back "if, as and when," Germany is fully conquered, that is a question too complex and bare of facts even to discuss in an intelligent manner.

It is, of course, no easy problem. The considerations mentioned here tell only part of the story.

There are the requests from gallant China. There are the claims of Russia on our equipment, which are more effective, now that she seems to have Germany on the run. There is the constant demand of England for aid in planes and tanks to equip her army at home and in North Africa, and in ships to maintain the Atlantic patrol and continue her commerce with this continent.

It is obvious now that one reason for not preventing, or at leasts avenging, the Hawaiian disaster, and for our defeat in the Philippines, was that we diverted so many supplies from points very vital to our own needs to meet these Allied demands that we had not enough for our own use when the fateful hour struck.

It is true that the war has just begun—true that the essence of military strategy is to keep strength concentrated in the enemy's weakest front and not to fritter away our striking power by buttering it too thin over areas too wide.

All the combatants seem to have done too much of this, but none to the extent that we have undertaken.

Due to the dearth of facts in public possession, this cannot be written in any critical sense, but only as one consideration to keep in mind while studying the ebb and flow of this tide of war.

Although we are committeed to doing everything in our power to help these friends of ours, is it not important to have it thoroughly understood that we must conserve enough of our strength to defend ourselves in any circumstances?

FIRMS OF FIVE NEUTRAL LANDS BLACKLISTED

U. S. Cracks at Axis Through Tightening of Economic Blockade In Europe.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON — The United States today launched direct economic warfare against the Axis powers in the five principal neutral nations of Europe.

In a drastic move designed to tighten the screws of the economic blockade against the Axis, the American government applied the blacklist to all firms and individuals in Portugal, Spain, Switzerland, Sweden and Turkey who have any connections or dealings with the common enemy.

A total of approximately 1,800 firms and individuals in those countries who are known to represent, or to have connections with, Axis interests, were slapped on the American blacklist.

This action deprives those firms and individuals of the benefits of American trade by making it a criminal offense for any American firm or individual to have any dealings with them.

Furthermore, it was learned on high authority that the embargo against the blacklisted firms and individuals of those countries will apply indirectly to their trade with Latin America. Any Latin American firm which deals with the barred European firms or nationals will be liable to be outlawed itself.

In view of the close trade connections with Spain and Portugal have with the Latin American nations, the effect of this move is considered of tremendous importance.

The American government's action not only tightens the economic blockade against the Axis powers, but it also notifies the five neutral nations of Europe that economically, at least, they must decide on which side they intend to stake their future in the present world struggle.

It tells their private citizens, in effect, that if they trade with the Axis, they cannot trade with the United States or Latin America.

INDICTED FOR FATHER'S DEATH

Zanesville Man Charged With Fatal Shooting of Parent During Quarrel.

(By United Press)

ZANESVILLE — Ralph Kennison, 37, was under indictment for second degree murder today, charged with the fatal shooting of his father, Edgar Kennison, 65, in a quarrel over the possession of a shirt at the Kennison home on Oct. 19.

The Muskingum county grand jury returned manslaughter indictments against two motorists. David Hadwin, 79, was charged as driver of an automobile which killed Richard Lawyer, 10, as he alighted from a school bus Dec. 10. Simon Gordon, 60, was charged as driver of a truck in a collision on Oct. 4 in which Perry county Prosecutor T. S. Williams was killed.

Floyd Monroe Fisher, 26, Philo, was indicted on one robbery count charged with the 60 holdup of a Zanesville filling station Nov. 24.

Fisher, whose criminal record goes back to 1933, has confessed this robbery and also filling station holdup in Cambridge, Coshocton, Marietta, Columbus and two automobile thefts in the Canton-Akron vicinity, according to Detective Captain Edgar Rider. Fisher was driving a stolen car when arrested a few hours after the Zanesville holdup. He once served a term at the federal reformatory in Chillicothe for automobile theft.

AUTO RATIONING TO BE NEW PROJECT FOR TIRE RATIONERS

Mansfield's tire rationing board, together with the others throughout America now at work determining who can buy the few tires and tubes that may be sold, will take on the added task of administering the passenger automobile rationing program.

This was announced in Washington late yesterday by Price Administrator Leon Henderson. He said the auto program would go into effect Feb. 2.

As is the case in rationing of tires and tubes, eligible buyers will include doctors, visiting nurses, farm veterinarians, and persons engaded in fire fighting, crime prevention or detection, protection of public health and safety, and the transportation of mail. Also eligible will be persons who had purchased, as of January 2, new cars then in the hands of dealers.

James Bailey, chairman of the Mansfield tire board and Richland county co-ordinator of the program, was in Columbus today attending a meeting of the tire rationing coordinators from throughout the state. It was expected additional details concerning the auto rationing would be given the group. Principal speaker was to be Paul Morton, of the Office of Price Administration, Washington.

The preliminary details of the automobile rationing plan were announced by Henderson after he testified before a house committee investigating small business problems on government plans to afford relief for established car dealers who face hard times because of automobile production curtailment.

Under the rationing plan, eligible persons will make their purchases through dealers, once they have been granted priority certificates by their local rationing boards.

Henderson said that 614,000 to 674,000 new cars would be released for rationed sales.

There are approximately 200 new cars "frozen" on Mansfield dealers' floors. In addition, it is estimated there are at present 350 used cars in auto agencies of the city.

The Mansfield tire rationing board is one of eight functioning in Richland county, and there is in addition a county advisory board which works out the breakdowns by townships of the tire allocations given to the county each month. The Mansfield board includes Bailey, a retired business man, Fred B. Wolff, proprietor of the Brunswick hotel, and Harold D. Burns, attorney.

WIDOW, 81, DIES

Mrs. Mary A. Rowland Succumbs at Daughter's Home.

Mrs. Mary A. Rowland, 81, widow of Charles M. Rowland, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest H. Stauffer, 729 Highland avenue, early this morning following a prolonged illness.

Born in Neunkirch, Switzerland, Dec. 14, 1860, she came to the United States when 14 years old. After living in Massillon for a short time she came to Mansfield where she made her home for the past 65 years. She was a charter member of St. Luke's Lutheran church.

Surviving besides her daughter are two sisters, Mrs. Fred Beahler of Youngstown and Mrs. Anna Forster of Neunkirch; and one brother, Henry Sternegger of Lyons, France.

The body has been returned to the home of her daughter to remain until Saturday noon when it will be taken to the Finefrock Funeral home where Rev. Herbert S. Garnes will conduct services at 2:30 p. m.

Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

Up and Down the Street

Richland county's blind will dispense with the usual weekly afternoon of recreation at the Salvation Army citadel today to participate in a discussion of the war situation and other current topics. The group keeps posted on current topics through Braille news bulletins and will contribute to the discussion at which Adjt. Paul Hoffman will act as chairman.

A dozen Ontario Boy Scouts under the leadership of Scoutmaster Harold Marshall are going to have a job on their hands Saturday when they set out by auto to canvass all of Springfield township for books to be reconditioned by the Mansfield Public Library before sending them to men in the armed forces. Their problem would be partially solved, it was suggested, if rural householders would take their contributions all tied in bundles to some centrally located point such as a nearby general store or filling station. At any rate Scoutmaster Harold Marshall has promised that a thorough job will be done by his 12 Scouts.

FARM BUREAU DEMANDS VETO FOR WICKARD

Organization Willing To Relax Stand on Ceiling For Farm Prices.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON — As senate-house conferees held their first meeting on the price contro. bill today, the American Farm Bureau federation indicated willingness to accept a compromise on the controversial senate farm price amendments.

The federation demanded inclusion of the Bankhead amendment, giving Secretary of Agriculture Wickard veto power over farm price fixing, but indicated it would approve elimination of the O'Mahoney-Russell amendment prohibiting a price ceiling below 120 per cent of parity.

With wide differences existing between senate and house on price control legislation, conference chiefs said that an agreement may not be reached for several days.

Administration leaders said that public opinion is rising rapidly against senate action on farm amendments which President Roosevelt denounced as paving the way for spiraling of food prices and leading to inflation. They hoped that protests from the nation against a rise in cost of living would help them defeat the congressional "farm bloc."

President Edward A. O'Neal of the federation, in a letter to the conferees, said that the bureau had stood for a provision prohibiting fixing of farm prices below 110 per cent of parity. This would be about 10 per cent above the present level.

The O'Mahoney-Russell amendment, which both ties farm prices to wage parity and 1919-1929 levels, would boost cost of living 20 to 25 per cent, administration leaders charged.

As the conferees met, it was learned that a compromise plan designed to meet the demands for a board to fix prices and satisfy farm organizations, was being discussed.

This proposal would permit one man to fix prices, but would set up an advisory committee composed of the secretary of agriculture, secretary of commerce and other officials. Sponsors of the proposal said it would assure Wickard a voice in price fixing.

Backing the president's fight against the farm bloc amendments, Price Administrator Leon Henderson declared in a speech before the closing session of the U. S. conference of mayors that the senate bill threatens "national suicide" through inflation.

The mayors instructed their president, Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York to support the president and Henderson in efforts to defeat the amendments, which La Guardia said he would do.

HOLD INSTITUTE

Adario Starts Annual Farm Sessions In County.

Richland county's farmers' institute season, the time when farm folk and village residents get together to talk over their problems, was under way today at Adario. The program there will be concluded tonight.

Three more institutes will be held next week in widely scattered parts of the county while institute officials in two other communities are attempting to arrange dates for their sessions. There will be no sessions at Butler, Shiloh, and Bellville.

Mrs. Lester Utz of New Washington will be the state speaker at the Lexington institute which will be held next Wednesday night only in the school auditorium. Both Mrs. Utz and B. O. Skinner of Marysville will speak at the Lucas and Weller-Mifflin-Franklin institutes next week. The Lucas meeting will be in the school Thursday and Friday and the combined Weller-Mifflin-Franklin sessions will be Friday and Saturday at the Union Rural school.

Arrangements for the Ontario and Shenandoah institutes have not been completed, the county agent said, but their sessions are expected to be late this month or early in February.

WOUNDS BANDITS IN GUN BATTLE

Chicago Youth Battles Burglars In Uncle's Home.

CHICAGO—(INS)—A Lake Forest Academy graduate fought a revolver battle with two masked burglars in his suburban Wilmete home today, fatally wounding one and critically wounding the other. The men had committed a $4,000 robbery earlier in nearby Winnetka.

The battle occurred in the home of William S. Hanna, wealthy retired executive. Hanna's nephew, William Johnston feigned sleep until the burglars left his room. Then, arming himself with two revolvers, he followed the intruders and ordered them to throw up their hands.

They answered with a burst of gunfire and Johnston emptied both revolvers at them. One man, identified as Leroy Race, 38, died within a few minutes. The other, who said he was Fred White, 42, was shot in both hips.

HALT PENALTIES

Injunction Stops Collection of Fines Against Farmers.

ELYRIA —(AP)— Common Pleas Judge D. A. Cook has granted a temporary injunction restraining the collection of 1941 wheat penalties from 17 Lorain county farmers.

The farmers filed a petition charging that the wheat allotment plan of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration is illegal and unconstitutional. Penalties of 49 cents a bushel are provided for wheat produced in excess of allotments.

INJURIES FATAL

Mrs. Anna Smart of Ashland Dies of Skull Fracture.

ASHLAND—Injuries sustained when, according to police, she walked into the side of a truck, claimed the life last night of Mrs. Anna Smart, about 60. She died in Samaritan hospital nine hours after the accident.

Officers said she suffered a fractured skull and a crushed chest when the rear wheel of a truck operated by Til Myers of Crestline passed over her body as she was crossing Main street at the intersection of Union. Police said they were told Mrs. Smart's vision was impaired.

Only survivor is a niece, Mrs. Bertha Bennett of Delaware.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Saturday at Gilbert's chapel, Rev. W. L. Desenberg, assisted by Rev. J. C. Inman, pastor of the Third street Brethren church will officiate. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery in Delaware county.

As the result of another accident near here, John Skvarek, Bobton, Pa., charged with manslaughter in a fatal accident at the intersection of U. S. routes 250 and 224 on Nov. 16 in which an Akron detective, Samuel Thomas was killed, pleaded guilty before Common Pleas Judge H. E. Culbertson and was fined $300 and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

BAKER FUNERAL TO BE SATURDAY

Private funeral services for Mrs. Helen Dale Baker, 33, who took her own life yesterday morning at her home at 340 Davis road, will be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday at the Wappner funeral home.

Rev. C. L. Kern, pastor of the South Main Evangelical church, will officiate, and burial will be in the Shauck cemetery at Johnsville. Friends may call at the funeral home until Saturday noon.

Mrs. Baker, mother of three children, fired a revolver bullet into her head, Coroner L. B. McCullough said. She had been in ill health, according to members of her family. She was the wife of Kenneth C. Baker.

Richland county will be well represented at the annual Ohio Farmers' week sponsored by Ohio State university in Columbus Jan. 26-30. Louis Bromfield, Mansfield novelist, will be one of the speakers and more than 100 Richland farmers are expected to attend.

Speaking Jan. 27 at University hall on the Columbus campus, Bromfield will use "What We Have to Look Forward to" as his subject.

800 See 'Tobacco Road' Giving Third Performance Here

"Tobacco Road," the Jack Kirkland drama depicting 48 hours among the poverty-ridden share-croppers of Georgia, brought "Jeeter Lester," and his hungry, ragged tribe to life again on the Madison stage last night before an audience of approximately 800.

The third local performance of the play that has chalked up an eight-year record on Broadway and played four performances on two previous engagements here returned John Barton to Mansfield in the role of "Jeeter," the lazy, shiftless share-cropper whose one redeeming quality was a deep-rooted love for the soil on which he was born.

Barton, who has given more than 1,500 performances as "Jeeter," drew laughter and tears as well with his portrayal of "the most powerful sinner of them all," to whom profanity was a natural language but who outwardly prayed for the return of prosperity to the land.

The company came to Mansfield from Lima and will play in Zanesville tonight.

TWO ARRESTED IN SHOOTING

Mansfield police announced today that two colored Mansfield residents, wounded in a cutting-shooting scrape at the Picket Fence club, 217½ North Diamond street, last Friday night, had been arrested but would not be arraigned until their conditions have improved.

Rudolph Dawson, 553 Lily street, is still in General hospital suffering from two wounds from a gun allegedly fired by Lawrence Newsome, proprietor of the club. Newsome told police that he shot four times at Dawson after the latter had attacked him with a knife. Dawson was struck in the head and right shoulder while Newsome suffered several cuts.

PLAN FOR DANCE

Red Cross Benefit To Be Held at Hall Saturday.

Italian-American citizens of Mansfield completed plans today for the benefit dance to be held Saturday night at the Eagles' hall to raise money for the Red Cross war emergency fund.

A floor show will be presented by Beverly Price and her Darling Scatterbrains, according to Michael Augustine, chairman, and Tony Vincent's orchestra will furnish music for dancing from 8 p. m. to 1 a. m.

The affair is open to the public and approximately 500 persons are expected. All proceeds will be contributed to the war fund as hall, orchestra and floor show, as well as flowers and refreshments to be sold in concession booths, have been donated.

A DISHCLOTH can be "host" to millions of Germs!

THE MICROSCOPE reveals that soiled dishcloths are inhabited by millions of germs. It further reveals how efficiently Clorox disinfects, for Clorox is intensified in germicidal action. Clorox also bleaches dishcloths and mops snowy-white (brightens fast colors), makes them fresh-smelling, sanitary. It's easy to give your family added health protection with Clorox. Simply follow directions on the label.

Sport Podge

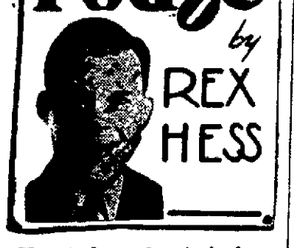
by REX HESS



How to have fun in bed.

I was dreaming the other yawning, just before alarm time, that I was shooting a golf. Which isn't a bad thing to dream up at this time of year.

The fairways were green, the rough was short, and the greens—well, as usual, I never got to the greens. Nothing like a little accuracy in your dream-life chillun.

The sun had its usual stuff on the ball, and was beating down as ever it did in the balmy-balmy days of the good old summertime.

Seems I was shooting at that short, front-trapped No. 2 out at Possum—shooting and shooting and shooting, and never hitting the green. The dream scheme remained accurate, which means I was inaccurate as always

Shot after shot I poured at that green, using every club in the bag. And shot after shot took that lazy dipsy-doo turn to the right and faded away. I could hear the swish of the club, the click of the ball, and worst of all I could see that slice, big as life and twice as awful.

Finally a terrific clout, taking the usual fade, bounced in the trap and out, and trickled across the lower end of the green, and came to rest on the apron. I was very happy.

But the strange fact remains, I hardly ever sliced on that hole last summer. Always it was a pull or a smother to the left. How about that?

Now I am not a guy to go running for the answer in a dream book every time I have a nocturnal brainstorm. So I laugh off the suggestion that this is a bad omen and that I'll spend the next summer slicing at No. 2.

I'm willing to settle on the idea that it merely foretold that I was to receive a post card yesterday from Bill Mead, vacationing at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where the sun still beats down and a guy could swing golf clubs in great abandon.

Says Bill: "Sport writers down here do not inflict poetry on their readers. This will probably help me toward recovery. Anyway, I am having your poetry sent down."

Well, that's mighty sweet of Bill, don't you think so? Think of the really good vacation he could have had without it.

At this point it seems I need
To dream up a ditty for Bill
Mead.

NEW YORK —(AP)— With rubber now rationed, winners of Madison Square Garden basketball games no longer will be permitted to retain the ball for their trophy chest. The 60-odd balls purchased for the present season cost approximately $1,000.

New Philly Quakers Play Here

Tygers Want Revenge For Double Overtime Defeat.

MANSFIELD high school's bucket-tossing Tygers tomorrow night will make their last appearance in three weeks before the home crowd due to a schedule arrangement which takes them on the road for four straight games.

New Philadelphia's Quakers provide the entertainment, and in spite of the fact that New Philly was trounced 51-39 Tuesday night by its twin-city rival, Dover, Harry Mehock, who saw the game, reports that the Quakers could very easily make tomorrow's pastiming not so entertaining for the home folk.

New Philly has three lettermen back from a team which defeated Mansfield last year in a double-overtime battle in the Tuscarawas city, a game in which Bob Winbigler, incidentally, racked up 17 points.

The Quaker veterans are Kirk, center, who tallied 12 points against Dover, Richardson, forward, who was held to three points, and Halter, guard, who chalked up nine.

Kirk and Halter are big boys who are used under the hoop on New Philly's 3-2 zone defense, and then have to hustle like mad to get down under the opposite bucket when the play changes to offense. That they succeed fairly well in making the shift is indicated by the 21 points they tallied against Dover.

Other two starters for New Philly are Ritter, forward, who scored five points against Dover, and Mason, guard, who got seven.

Dover is one of the Central Ohio league's outstanding teams, and was nipped by only two points by Newark's high-flying Wildcats.

Coach Vern Hoffman of the Tygers was well pleased with the work of Joe Romano and Ken Krupp in Tuesday night's victory at Ashland, and it wouldn't be surprising if the starting lineup for Mansfield will be: Dietzel, center, Romano and Winbigler, forwards, and Krupp and Shiplet guards.

Romano appears to be shaking loose the football legs which slowed him down at the beginning of the season, and in his last three games has given indication that he'll soon be rounding into the form which made him a mainstay of the team last spring.

Officials for tomorrow night's game will be Denison University Coach Sid Gilman, and Toledo University Coach Harold Anderson.

3 Clubs Win In 'Y' Church Loop

In the Y. M. C. A. church league Tuesday St. Paul's tripped the Baptists, 25-13, the Congregationals passed the Episcopals, 17-13, and St. Luke's beat the Lutherans, 22-20.

High scorer was Hager of St. Paul's with four baskets and four free throws for 12 points.

Hershey Holds Top Hockey Loop Spot

The Hershey Bears, undefeated in their last ten games, continue on top of the American Hockey league's Western division standings today by the slim margin of one game.

The Bears preserved their unbeaten streak last night by walloping the Philadelphia Rockets, 6 to 3. The victory served also to keep the Bruins ahead of the second place Cleveland Barons, who edged out a 2-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Hornets.

The Providence Reds and Indianapolis Capitals battled to a 6-6 tie at Providence.

PUCKS TO PASS FOR HOCKEY TILT TICKETS

NEW HAVEN, Conn—(AP)—The rubber situation being what it is, an official American Hockey league puck, which costs about 35 cents, will be worth a $1.10 ticket of admission tonight for the New Haven-Indianapolis game at the Arena.

General Manager Nathan Podoloff said the idea was to collect stray discs which found their way into the pockets of fans during previous games this season.

Hedges Tops School Loop

First Round Ends With Bowman Still Challenging.

Hedges school held top honors in the elementary school basketball league as the first round closed last night with eight wins and one loss. Only team which can hope to even tie that record is Bowman school with six wins and two losses and two postponed games yet to be played.

Yesterday Hedges tripped Woodland school, 12-6, on the Johnny Appleseed Junior high school floor, Newman salted down its claim on third place with a 17-16 win over eighth place Carpenter team on the Hedges floor, Prospect nipped Bushnell, 13-11, and West Fifth shaded Brinkerhoff, 5-3.

Standings for the round:

Sailors Take Big 10 In Stride

CHICAGO —(AP)— Great Lakes' basketball team still is taking Big Ten opposition in stride.

Last night it was Northwestern, the Wildcats becoming the third Western conference member to lose to the Sailors who now have a season's record of 14 victories and two defeats.

Ohio State of the Big Ten dealt out one of the setbacks, Michigan State the other. The Sailors' Big Ten victims included Purdue and Indiana as well as a third Hoosier team, Notre Dame, which will get another crack at Great Lakes in the Chicago stadium Feb. 9.

The Wildcats, who only Monday met their first defeat—by Michigan—went down last night, 47 to 38, after a struggle in which the lead changed hands seven times.

YALE BEATS COLGATE IN Y-SENIOR LOOP

In the Y. M. C. A. Senior cage loop last night Yale shaded Colgate, 35-32, Cornell beat Dartmouth, 30-27, and Princeton downed Harvard, 32-28.

Sickmiller of the Harvard club led the scoring wars with six baskets and two free throws for a total of 14 points.

Capital Continues Scoring

Scores 71 Points a Tilt To Lead State's Teams.

(By Associated Press)

Ohio college basketball fans wondered today how long Capital university's basketball team could keep on making 71 points a game.

The Capitol City quintet has averaged that many points in its four games this season. Last night this tall, rangy outfit swamped Otterbein, 73 to 47, in an Ohio conference tussle.

Before that Capital had defeated Bethany, Ashland and Otterbein.

Muskingum won a thriller from Washington & Jefferson at New Concord 31-30 on two foul throws after the final gun sounded.

W&J was ahead halfway through the last quarter and held a one-point advantage with only eight seconds to go. However, Guard Robert Holtsclaw, amid a tense silence, sank the two shots that meant victory after the game was over.

In the other conference games, Denison beat Oberlin, 68 to 40, and Baldwin Wallace defeated John Carroll, 50 to 29.

Ohio Wesleyan defeated an arch rival, Miami university, 46 to 42, in a game featured by 42 personal fouls—21 called on each team. Don Fitz, Wesleyan forward, sank a long one to break a 19-19 tie at the half and from then on Wesleyan held the lead.

In the state's other games Hiram eked out its first victory of the season by defeating Heidelberg, 39 to 38, at Hiram; De Sales played host to Fort Custer's camp team and won, 47 to 43; at Bluffton, Kenyon easily defeated Bluffton, 47 to 31, and West Virginia State trounced its host, Rio Grande, by 48-44.

Tonight's games: Wooster at Kent State and Wilmington at Wilberforce.

Johnny Perrine Leads Westie-A

Art Rattan Leader Has Games of 141 and 244.

Increasing his pile of kindling from 141 pins in the first game to 244 in the last one, Tykodi chalked up a 574 total to pace the Art Rattan league last night at Colony alleys.

His 244 was high game, while Simon turned in a 224 on top of a 133. A special note from the league reports that Harold Mumford turned in a sparkling 381 after predicting a 540.

Red Birds Win Six Straight

PERRYSVILLE — Coach Leo Grimes' Loudonville high cagers continued their winning ways for the sixth straight game here last night by downing Perrysville, 53-25.

Taking an early lead the Loudonville squad was never headed and went the distance unchallenged.

High scorer was Bud Darling of Loudonville with five buckets and four free throws for 14 points. Dean Beans and Jim Young, also of Loudonville, each caged 11 points.

Although it was a non-league game, Loudonville is currently holding top honors in the Central Buckeye loop.

OUSTS 3 PLAYERS TO BOOST MORALE

DAYTON—(AP)—The University of Dayton's basketball squad was minus three players today—dismissed, Coach Jim Carter said, to improve morale.

He asserted that "their lackadaisical attitude in practice and even in games on occasions has brought about a certain amount of dissension on the team." They were Bill Knisley of Xenia, a star junior, and Jack Castignola of New Philadelphia and Lou Priske of Dayton, sophomore substitutes.

Tennis Set For Novices

U. S. L. T. A. Faces Year With Players In Army.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Faced with the problem of carrying on through the war with what players the armed forces don't need and the professionals don't want, the U. S. Lawn Tennis association is about to take the game away from the stars and hand it over to the boys who still find the net too high.

The first step in adjusting the U. S. L. T. A. program to wartime requirements will be taken at the organization's annual meeting here Saturday, with President Holcombe Ward advocating a plan to "get people out of the grandstand and onto the courts."

Specifically, Ward will request the executive commitee to cancel the National Indoor tournament for men this year and let the outdoor championships, both singles and doubles, be decided in one tournament at Forest Hills instead of separately as in the past.

If Ward's plan is approved, the one National Outdoor tournament for both men and women in singles and doubles will be held here Aug. 27 to Sept. 7. The plan does not involve the Women's Indoor meet.

"Most of the ranking players among the men probably will be in service by then," Ward said, "but there will be many young men under military age to fill their places, thanks to the association's junior development program."

In the future, Ward said, the U. S. L. T. A. will pay less attention to the first ten ranking players and more attention to the rank and file.

Navy Collects $89,092 In Louis-Baer Title Brawl

By SID FEDER

NEW YORK—(AP)—If you have been wondering exactly what happened to the $100,000 the Navy Relief Fund didn't get from the $189,700 gross gate of last Friday's Joe Louis-Buddy Baer brawl, just think no more of it.

Every cent is accounted for and a beaming navy, with a check for $89,092.01—don't ask us what that odd cent is for—is all smiles not only over its take, but over the fact that Promoter Mike Jacobs added several thousand dollars to the charity's cut by holding expenses lower than for most of the other heavyweight championship shindigs in the last decade.

Now that Louis is plain Buck Private J. Louis Barrow, you can sit down and figure out just how much it costs to put on one of these super-colossals.

To begin with, the promotion, ballyhoo and buildup of a major heavyweight tea-party, such as last Friday night's figured to be, ordinarily runs within shouting distance of $25,000. This time, Uncle Mike held it down in the neighborhood of $14,000. The difference went to the navy fund for families of sailors at sea and killed in action.

The fund's gaudy payday was made up of $47,100.94 from Louis, who turned in his entire net cut of the gate; $47,229.96 from Jacobs, who contributed his whole net profit, and the Garden, which kindly consented to kick in with half of its net take; $4,081.11 or one-sixth of Baer's purse; $450 from the ring officials—referees, judges, etc.—who worked for half pay, and $230 from the preliminary fighters, who have a tough time getting by as it is.

To this navy total of $89,092.01 and the sum of $28,455 or thereabouts which was rapidly grabbed "off the top" by your Uncle Sam and his nephew, New York state, for taxes. Dropping the odd pennies, this leaves you with exactly $117,547 accounted for and something over $72,000 of the gross gate still to be cut up.

Baer, who makes his living with his fists, was to have received 15 per cent of the net gate. He turned back 2½ per cent and collected just under $20,000 for the beating he took. (Confidentially, it was worth a million.) Louis' end was the usual 40 per cent, or about $64,000. He gave up everything except his training expenses, which ran in the neighborhood of $17,000, no more than they ordinarily are for running a camp for six weeks, paying sparring partners—and the steaks they eat.

The preliminary card, an especially high-class set of bouts this time, cost a total of $4,500. The officials cost $900.

Uncle Mike and the Garden cut the promotional profits down the middle on all Garden clambakes. In this case, it was estimated at $67,000.

Out of his half, Mike had five weeks of expenses for his office staff, his drum-beating brigade and such, amounting to around $14,000. Everything else he tossed into the navy pot. The Garden pocketed half of its share.

Which gives you a rough idea of how long a buck lasts in the business of busting beaks. Just about as long, probably as that $21-a-month Private Barrow will be drawing now at Camp Upton, Yaphank, Long Island.

Skate-Softball Tilt Proves Fun

Westinghouse skate-shod softball players slipped, skidded, and flopped on the ice at Mifflin lake yesterday as department M-7 defeated B-9 in a two-hour battle 18-14.

Batters discovered that the start of their swing was apt to wind up in a most undignified sprawl on the ice, but fielders had little difficulty in keeping their balance.

The ice was a bit slushy, but hard hit balls rolled and rolled, and would have set new softball records for long distance clouts if the ice had been hard.

Four home runs were bounced across the ice by Maxwell, Walker, and Carl and Al Kushin.

The players decided they'd have some more of that sport when the top ice isn't so soft.

THEATERS

Array of Songs.

Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland introduce a score of songs in "Babes On Broadway," showing at the Ohio. Some of them are old tunes such as "Rings On My Fingers," "I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy," and the new ones include the hit, "Franklin D. Roosevelt Jones," sung by Judy Garland in the minstrel finale. Two newcomers from the musical comedy stage, Ray McDonald and Richard Quine, make their debut in this picture based on the hundreds of young hopefuls who invade New York every year in the hopes of crashing the Broadway theater. Fay Bainter and Virginia Weidler are in the cast.

Lively Comedy.

Bruce Edwards starts out to marry the boss's daughter as a means of getting ahead in the world in the current Madison attraction, "Marry the Boss's Daughter," Brenda Joyce plays the girl in the case and George Barbier the father. Maxie Rosenbloom, the slap-happy ex-pug, crashes his way into a swank college as a freshman specimen of the pre-historic "missing link" in "Harvard Here I Come," the co-feature. Arline Judge and Marie Wilson are cast.

Theatrical Comedy.

When a glamorous actress and a "gay dog" shipping magnate join forces in "Father Takes a Wife," the comedy starring Gloria Swanson and Adolphe Menjou at the Park life becomes complicated for both. The actress has a handsome Cuban protege and the shipping magnate has a conventional daughter and son-in-law. Dezi Arnaz, a young Cuban singing star, plays the protege and Florence Rice and John Howard appear as the in-laws. "Let's Go Collegiate," the second picture, features Frankie Darro and Gale Storm, a young songstress.

Gleason Featured.

"Nine Lives Are Not Enough," with James Gleason, Ronald Reagan and Joan Perry is playing at the Ritz. "Murder By Invitation," with Wallace Ford and Marian Marsh is the second attraction.

CHAPTER IX

"What's going on uptown tonight?" he asked. "People keep marching up and down the street."

"Nothing is going on," Linda was resentful. "To be perfectly honest, Greg, those people are just walking up and down, waiting to get a good look at you."

"At me?" Greg was surprised and amused, and Linda nodded. "Everyone knows you're in town and they want to see what a wealthy young Chicagoan looks like."

While Greg listened attentively, Linda told him the gossip circulating through the village, but instead of being angry, Greg laughed uproariously. When he announced gleefully, "Another expeditionary force is passing by," Linda exclaimed irritably, "Perhaps you should go out and make a speech, or hand out autographs just to satisfy their curiosity."

Greg chuckled. "I'm getting a big kick out of this, Linda. Those people want to be sure that you're not getting a bad bargain, and I can't say that I blame them. You must have a lot of friends here."

"I grew up in Prairievale," she said simply.

For Linda the evening was a success. Sally and Hugh made her feel completely at ease, and their friends gave Greg a gracious welcome, charmed by his poise and sparkling wit. During dinner Linda could not take her eyes from him. Without a doubt, Greg Hollister was at home anywhere, and Linda's vague fears vanished. She was content.

Pausing before the mirror in the powder room at the country club, she listened proudly to the others as they described Greg in glowing terms.

"He's marvelous," said one girl. "You're lucky, Linda, to have someone like that burning up the concrete between Chicago and Prairievale, just to see you."

"Don't you believe it," Sally said firmly. "Greg's a very lucky young man to have Linda's affection. She deserves the best."

Linda flushed happily. Catching a glimpse of her reflection in the mirror, she saw a small girl with sparkling eyes—cheeks untouched by make-up, yet bright with color. Dressing for Greg, Linda had been undecided whether to be herself—to let Greg see her as her friends and neighbors in Prairievale did—sweet, plain and thoroughly natural, or to be what she had laughingly termed "artificial" in Chicago.

"He's got to know the real me sometime," she said to herself at last, "so I won't pretend to be something I'm not."

If there was a puzzled light in Greg's blue eyes that evening whenever he glanced down at his companion, Linda did not notice, for she was deliriously happy, and at ease in an inconspicuous blue crepe dinner dress that had seen service two previous winters.

"You see," she said sweetly, when the evening had come to an end and they were at home again, "I'm not really a painted butterfly, after all. Diane and Sally dressed me up as a lark. Are you—are you disappointed in me, Greg?"

"Disappointed?" He laughed. "I wouldn't want you to be anything else but what you are."

Trustingly she lifted soft lips for his good-night kiss. "I've never known anyone like you before, Greg."

"And I didn't know there was someone like you in the world, Linda."

He kissed her gently, and Linda clung to him. If only the night would never end—if only they were just setting forth—

Gently Greg released her. "This is good-bye, Linda. I had a great time in Prairievale."

"Oh, but you'll be here tomorrow."

Greg shook his head. "I thought you understood that I'm pulling out the first thing in the morning."

"Oh, no!" Linda was dismayed. "We expected you to stay for dinner at least. It's Sunday, Greg."

"Sorry angel, but I have only a few days' leave from the lab, and I've got to hurry now to make up for lost time."

"Greg—" Linda struggled with a nameless fear. "You—you do like me, don't you?"

He caught her to him in a caress so sudden and powerful that Linda gasped.

"What do you think, beautiful?" he whispered ardently.

"I—I'm so glad," Linda was weak with relief. "I was beginning to think maybe I had just imagined that—that—"

"Imagined what?" Bluntly.

Linda looked down demurely. "Well, everyone says you—you must be interested, or you wouldn't be going out of your way just to see me."

"I—I can't forget that you're engaged to another man," Greg said soberly.

Linda wanted to tell him that she had decided to break her engagement, but she hesitated. Wouldn't that be rushing things just a little? After all, they had been together only twice.

"I—I have something to tell you," she murmured, "but it can wait. Will you write to me as soon as you get home, Greg? I'll tell you my secret then."

He nodded, opening his mouth to speak, and then bent abruptly and kissed her. "I won't see your parents again, so tell them goodbye for me, Linda. And thanks for everything."

After he had gone, Linda leaned against the door, happily reliving the evening's activities. It seemed like a dream now. Fantastic. Incredible. Only one thing stood out vividly in her mind. "I love Greg." She was exultant. "I love him—love him—and I'm not afraid of anything or anyone. I can't even feel sorry for Kyle now, because nothing matters but Greg and me."

Tiptoeing up the steps to her room, she paused outside her mother's door, aching to waken her—to tell her the exciting news. She sensed that behind that closed door her parents lay sleepless, wondering, but Linda checked her impulse. She wanted to treasure her happiness just a little longer. "I'll tell them tomorrow," she decided, "and receive the proverbial family blessing." There was little doubt in her mind that her parents, eager for her happiness, would understand her love for Greg Hollister once she told them all that was in her heart.

But Linda awakened the next morning to find her mother standing in the door, her face so pale that her eyes seemed enormous. Her outstretched hand clutched the morning paper, and as Linda sat up, puzzled and perplexed, the woman's hoarse voice cried:

"Linda — something dreadful has happened!"

Staring at her mother's white face, Linda felt an icy clutch at her heart. She beheld a vision of Greg speeding down the highways, reckless, devil-may-care...

"Greg—" she whispered. "Something has happened to Greg!"

Scarcely had Linda voiced her fear for Greg's safety than her mother was shaking her head impatiently. "Not Greg," she exclaimed irritably. "This — read it."

She held out the local newspaper, its pages turned to the gossip column, and Linda read:

"Gossip has it that Linda Phillips has definitely cancelled her trip to the altar with the Norman lad, in favor of a charming visitor to Prairievale. When is it going to be, Miss Phillips?"

A sense of relief swept through Linda. Her only thought had been for Greg's welfare as he sped toward Kansas City. The fact that her secret had been brazenly released to the newspapers failed to rankle.

"Is that all?" she said lightly. "I thought something terrible had—"

"All!" Mary Phillips was plainly angered by Linda's indifferent attitude. "How can you be so calm, Linda. Everyone in town will see this and believe it. If only I knew who was responsible! John must go down to the newspaper and demand they retract this statement now. Before it's too late!"

Linda thought she had never seen her mother in such a temper. The woman's face was pale and strained by days of brooding. Her breath came in short gasps.

Linda had sensed that despite her obvious acceptance of the facts, Mary Phillips had believed she would dismiss Greg, as a brief infatuation, return to Kyle Norman and abide by his decisions. Her heart ached for her parents, but Linda said gravely:

"It's already too late, mother. It's been too late since I first set eyes on Greg Hollister. I don't know who sent in that information, but everyone had to know the truth sooner or later."

"And what is the truth?" Mary Phillips asked with dread.

Linda smiled radiantly. She tossed her head with a gesture of pride. "The truth is that I love Greg Hollister, and I'm going to marry him."

Mary Phillips winced as though she had been struck a mortal blow. She moistened her lips, hesitating before she said weakly, "Th—then he's asked you to—to marry him?"

"Not in so many words," Linda answered cautiously. "Greg wants me to decide for myself. He won't make the decision for me, and," she confessed proudly, "so I've made it. I really decided in Chicago that my engagement to Kyle had been a dreadful mistake, but I wanted Greg to know me as I really am. When he asks me, I'll become Mrs. Gregory Hollister."

Mary Phillips collapsed on the bed. She seemed suddenly pathetically old and frail. "I—I can't believe it. You're like a stranger to me, Linda. My little girl wouldn't do such a thing. She wouldn't be so—so unfair to her parents, and to Kyle. Think how this must be hurting him!"

Compassionately Linda put her arm around the other woman. "I'm sorry, Mother," she whispered pitiously. "Truly I don't want to hurt you or Kyle, but after all, it's my life and I must decide things for myself."

"But you were happy before you met this—this Greg!"

Linda knew her mother had deliberately fumbled his name, but she felt so alienated from her parents by her new emotions, the emotions they could or would not understand, that she felt no anger at the snub.

"I wasn't happy," she said wisely. "I was in a rut. I had been growing more dissatisfied, more discontented every day, before I went away, until I had reached the point where I was beginning to hate Kyle. I was tired of seeing him around so much — of knowing he picked my friends and controlled my activities.

"I was—trapped, and I didn't know how to escape. I thought perhaps I was unhappy because we had been engaged for so long and had so many disappointments, but I was wrong. When you're in love nothing else matters. There are no disappointments—no petty things can touch you. I know that now."

"Kyle is a good man, and he loves you."

"Kyle loves himself and his own comfort above all else," Linda answered hotly. "I'm not afraid now to tell him that everything is over between us!"

But Linda was to find that casting off the old and taking on the new was not as easy as it had seemed. In the first place, Kyle was not easily daunted despite his noble words, and the fact that she had returned his engagement ring Linda suspected that her parents had a great deal to do with throwing them together at every opportunity, and she turned a deaf ear to his nightly entreaties for "another chance" until Kyle at last gave up his attempts to reconquer her love. Still, although he stopped coming to the house when she was there, Linda knew he paid a daily call on her mother, and the thought rankled in her heart.

Neighbors, too, tried in vain to make Linda reconsider the step she had taken. Nearly every evening when she came from the office, it was to find someone waiting for a word with her, slyly put in some instances, bold in others, until Linda was almost at the breaking point.

"I can't stand it any longer," she said, in tears one evening, when she had fled to Sally for sympathy and understanding.

"Linda, this may hurt," Sally said, taking a long breath, "but it's true, and you've got to face facts. The people you're condemning as busybodies aren't like that at all. They are your friends. They've known you always, and they want to make sure you don't make a mistake that you may regret later."

"But it's my life," resentfully.

"Yes, it is your life, but everyone of these so-called busybodies has had a hand in it at one time or another. Why, I'll wager your hope chest is filled with gifts from these very people."

Linda remembered the big chest in her bedroom, filled to overflowing with lovely linens and china—gifts to Linda and Kyle.

"It isn't that we don't like Greg," Sally assured her, "but you're so innocent, Linda. You have no idea what life is like outside of Prairievale, and we don't want you to be disillusioned. Try to be brave, Linda, and you can lick this thing if you want to."

Linda smiled through her tears. "I'll try," she promised, "but, oh, Sally, I don't know how much longer I can bear it!"

Despite her resolution, Linda's patience was short-lived. Nearly a week had elapsed since Greg's visit and she had heard nothing from him. This, coupled with her parents' continuous remonstrations caused Linda to break down.

"I can't stand this any longer," she sobbed. "I've got to decide things for myself. I'm not a child any more. You must understand that!"

"I can understand only one thing," her father returned stubbornly, "and that is this: You're making a foolish mistake, casting aside the love of a good man for someone you know nothing about, and mark my words, you'll be sorry."

"I think Kyle means more to you than I do," she whispered.

"Kyle has been like a son to us," he returned stiffly. "A good son."

"And I'm not a good daughter?" Linda was thoroughly aroused. "Is that what you mean?"

"A good daughter would have more consideration for her parents."

"Parents! Parents!" Linda flung the word angrily, her face losing color, her eyes flashing. "What of me? What of the life I want for myself? I've asked very little, after all, except kindness and . . . and patience."

"We've been too patient," her father said harshly. "This man should never have been allowed inside this house, and, by heaven, he never will be again!"

MUST BE HYGIENIC

SACRAMENTO, Cal. — (U.P.) — The California state industrial accident commission has ruled that nails shipped into this state must be fit for a carpenter to hold in his mouth. George Kidwell, head of the commission, explained that several years ago lead poisoning occurred among carpenters who held shingle nails in their mouths while working.

During the heavy air attacks on England in 1940, British fighter planes shot down nearly 10 times as many German bombers as did anti-aircraft guns.

STOCK MARKET TRENDS SHOW IRREGULARITY

Bank Clearings For Week Reported Far Under Preceding Period.

NEW YORK —(AP)— Modest advances contrasted with minor declines to make for mild irregularity in today's stock market transactions.

Market trend analysts scanned the Dun & Bradstreet summary which disclosed bank clearings in 23 cities for the week ended Wednesday, while registering an increase of 16.6 per cent over the comparable period a year ago, were $302,409,000 under the preceding week.

The drop was ascribed partly to year-end and quarterly payments which swelled the volume of the initial 1942 week.

BEE BEE'S Praised For Another Victory Over KIDNEY and URINARY Trouble

"This Grand Medicine Made a Perfectly Wonderful Change In My Condition," States Piqua Lady.

Winning victory after victory in hard tests on long-standing troubles, Bee Bees is daily receiving the heartfelt praise of more well-known Piqua men and women. Among the most recent to report her restoration by these famous new herbal remedies is Mrs. Hattie Baker, of 200 East High street, Piqua, Ohio.

"I have suffered severe pains and soreness in my back. My muscles were stiff and sore. I was very nervous, unstrung and easily excited. I suffered from awful headaches about all the time and was unable to get proper rest. Several times I would have to get up during the night but since I have taken Bee Bee's I no longer suffer from any discomforts from my kidneys. Bee Bee's has given me a new lease on life. Bee Bee's is truly a miracle medicine." Why not try a bottle of Bee Bee's?

CHARGES PLANE PROGRAM LAGS

Senate Committee Hits Both Quantity, Quality of Output, Lashes OPM.

the World war in 1939 the armed forces had only enough planes to furnish skeleton forces with equipment, and many were of inferior quality.

The committee, which is headed by Sen. Truman (D.), Mo., called for an over-all planning agency, with one-man control of production. This recommendation was approved before President Roosevelt made Donald Nelson war production chief.

In asserting that OPM, headed by William S. Knudsen and Sidney Hillman, has failed, the committee conceded that OPM was advisory and lacked real power to act.

"But, fundamentally, the disappointing record of the office of production management is not so much due to its lack of power as to its failure to perform the functions for which it was created," the report said.

Use of dollar-a-year men was assailed, the committee declaring that they become lobbyists for big business in award of contracts. OPM also was assailed for failure to remedy shortages in steel, aluminum and other metals.

Despite its criticism, the committee said that Mr. Roosevelt's goal of production of $56,000,000,000 in one year can be achieved. But, it added, the entire nation must be willing to make sacrifices.

The report on the airplane program said that "after two years of frantic effort, we have too few planes to allow adequate flying time for our pilots."

The committee criticised concentration of manufacture in 19 companies, declared that the army was slow to learn lessons of war, and assailed lack of standardization to make mass production possible.

The report criticised the OPM and the automobile industry for failure to convert to war production. It declared that the dollar value of defense articles delivered by the "Big Three" automobile manufacturers from Sept. 1, 1939, to Dec. 31, 1941, was but $404,612,000.

Numerous strikes, the report charged, were inspired by tremendous profits being made on defense contracts. The situation was aggravated by the fight between the AFL and CIO, the report added.

ENTERTAINED AT HOME

CRESTLINE — Merry Twelve Euchre club members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Foy recently with Mrs. John Knipp and C. T. Dickinson receiving prizes at the conclusion of the games. Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Solinger will welcome the group for the February club meeting.

MANSFIELD NEWS IN BRIEF

Accepted For Navy—Three men were accepted at the Mansfield recruiting station yesterday for enlistment in the U. S. Navy. They are Forest L. Brown, Shelby; Kenneth J. Fry, Mt. Vernon; and George M. Kelley, Martinsburg.

Fine Speeder—Edwin Metcalf, 378 Springmill street, was fined $10 and costs in municipal court yesterday after arraignment upon speeding charges. Metcalf was arrested for speeding by Mansfield police who charged he was speeding on Maple street.

Reports Hit-Skip Driver—Robert D. Hopper, Lexington R. D. 2, driver for a Mansfield taxicab company, told police last night that his car was struck by a hit-skip driver at the intersection of Mulberry and West Fourth streets. Hopper said his cab was parked when struck by the other auto.

Boy Scouts To Meet—The following three Boy Scout troops will meet at 7 p. m. today: Troop three, at the Woodville school under Scoutmaster J. J. Swisher; Troop nine at Bowman street school, under Scoutmaster Carl Stough; and Troop 16 at the American Legion home, under Scoutmaster Fred Elder.

Reservations Tonight — Seat reservations for the Mansfield Community Players' second production, "George Washington Slept Here," will open today at 7:30 p. m., on the Mansfield-Leland hotel mezzanine. The ticket board will be stationed at the Tawse pharmacy in the hotel building after tonight. The play will be presented Tuesday evening at John Simpson auditorium.

Denies Forgery—John W. Wilburn, listed by Mansfield police as a resident of West Virginia, pleaded not guilty to a forgery charge yesterday in municipal court and was bound over to the Richland county grand jury on $2,500 bond. Ray J. Calene, manager of the J. C. Penney store, charged that Wilburn passed a worthless check for $20 at the store.

Trustees to Meet — Mansfield Community Fund trustees will meet tonight in the Chamber of Commerce rooms to consider a proposed change in the hospital division policy of the Fund. If the change is adopted it will become effective June 1, according to Robert Remy, president, who has called the meeting for 7:30 p. m. The regular executive board session will follow the trustees' meeting.

MAKES ATTACK ON SENATE PLAN

Attorney General Says Ohio Redistricting Program's Unconstitutional.

and Joseph Jameson, who live in Lorain county.

Earl A. McFarland of Mansfield, Republican state central committeeman from the 17th district, and County G. O. P. Chairman Ralph Hardy protested to the state G. O. P. committee when the change was ordered as did other Republican leaders over the state.

Democrats and Republicans agreed that the new set-up would give the Democrats an edge in the coming senatorial election, probably resulting in the election of a Democratic state senate.

The attorney general told the supreme court that once a district was created, it could not be changed unless a county within the district had obtained sufficient population to become a separate district and unless the other counties in the district also had sufficient population to comprise a district.

It was pointed out by Atty. Gen. Herbert's counsel that no county except Lucas (Toledo) had met the requirements of becoming a separate district since the adoption of the state constitution in 1851.
